

Mr. Henry G. (Gar) Pardy, born in Bishop's Falls (Newfoundland), as Ambassador to the Republic of Costa Rica with concurrent accreditation to the Republic of Nicaragua, the Republic of El Salvador and the Republic of Honduras.

Mr. Pardy [B.A., (Honours), Political Science/History, Acadia University 1966; M.A., Political Science, McMaster University 1967] began his career in Gander/Goose Bay/Frobisher Bay, as Senior Meteorological Technician from 1957 to 1962. He joined the Department of External Affairs in 1967. He worked in the Press Office from 1967 to 1968 and in the South Asia Division from 1968 to 1969. He has served abroad in New Delhi, Nairobi and was Counsellor in Washington from 1978 to 1982. In Ottawa, he was Section Head, Security and Intelligence, from 1972 to 1975; Director, Western Hemisphere Operations Division from 1982 to 1983; Director, United States Programs Division from 1983 to 1985; and Director South & South East Asia Relations Division from 1985 to 1986. He has been Director, Asia Pacific South Relations Division since 1986. He is married to Laurel Pardy. They have two children. Mr. Pardy replaces Mr. S.E. Gooch.

-----

Ms. Nancy M. Stiles, from Toronto (Ontario), as High Commissioner to the Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka with concurrent accreditation to the Republic of Maldives.

Ms. Stiles [B.A. (Honours), Economics, Queen's University] joined the Trade Commissioner Service in 1972. She has served abroad in The Hague, Second Secretary (Commercial) from 1973 to 1976; Havana, First Secretary (Commercial) from 1976 to 1978 and in London, Counsellor (Economic) from 1982 to 1985. In Ottawa with the Department of Industry, Trade & Commerce, she was Deputy Director, Recruitment and Training from 1978 to 1980; and with the Department of External Affairs, she was Deputy Director, Caribbean and Central America Division from 1980 to 1982. She has been Director, Central America, Americas Branch, Canadian International Development Agency since 1985. Ms. Stiles replaces Ms. C. McAskie.

-----

Mr. David John Sydney Winfield, born in Chesterville (England), as Ambassador to the United Mexican States.

Mr. Winfield [B.A., Political Science, University of Alberta, 1963; Graduate Studies, International Affairs, University of Western Ontario, 1965] joined the Trade Commissioner Service in 1965. He has served abroad in The Hague, Ankara and Tokyo. He was Minister-Counsellor in Mexico, from 1980 to 1983, and Deputy Consul General in New York, from 1983 to 1985. In Ottawa, he was Chief, Latin America Division in the Department of Industry, Trade and Commerce, from 1976 to 1980 and was Vice-President, Investment Development, Investment Canada, from 1985 to 1987. He has been Minister (Economic/Commercial Affairs) in Tokyo since 1987. He is married to Carolyn Francis McManus. They have two children. Mr. Winfield replaces Mr. R. Chrétien.

-----