

Metcalfe, Ottawa Auxiliary and Mission Band, and South Russel. Officers.—Mrs. Thorburn, Ottawa, President; Mrs. J. McLean, Aylmer, and Mrs. W. H. Geddes, South Russel, Vice-Presidents; Mrs. Dempster, Chelsea, Treasurer; Miss Isabella Durie, Ottawa, Secretary. New Auxiliaries.—Metcalfe, in Ottawa Presbytery, organized by Rev. W. H. Geddes; Chalmers' Church Auxiliary, Kingston, by Mrs. Ross, and Pittserry in Kingston Presbyterial Society, by Mrs. Ross and Mrs. Dickson; Knox Church Auxiliary, Horning's Mills, Orangeville Presbyterial Society, by Mrs. McPaul; West Toronto Junction Presbyterial Society, by Mrs. Robinson. South Westminster Auxiliary, in London Presbyterial Society, by Mrs. Sawers and Mrs. Baby; Windsor Auxiliary in Chatham Presbyterial Society, re-organized; Brantford Zion Church Mission Band, in Paris Presbyterial Society, organized May 6th,

LITERATURE NOTICES.

It was decided at the Annual Meeting that there should be a Central Depôt for the literature issued by the Board, instead of each Presbyterial Secretary receiving a large supply for Auxiliaries. Applications should now be made to Mrs. Telfer, 72 St. Albans Street, Toronto, for all, except the monthly Letter Leaflet, and Annual Reports, which are sent out by the Home Secretary.

The following is the list and prices: "Mrs. Pickett's Missionary Box," "Pitchers and Lamps," "Kashibai," "Voices of the Women," "For His Sake," "Thanksgiving Ann," and "Mite Boxes," one cent each, or twelve cents per dozen; "Importance of Prayer," "Giving and Giving up," "Why and How," "What is in thine Hand?" and "Preparation for the Master's Work," eight cents per dozen.

"Leaflet No. 1 (Self-questioning)," "Two Cents a Week," "Presbyterial Organization," "How to Organize and Manage a Missionary Society or Band." Monthly Envelopes and Prayer Cards free.