

An Act further to encourage Shipbuilding within this Province.

WHEREAS it is desirable to encourage skilled labour and Shipbuilding within the Province; Therefore Her Majesty, &c., enacts as follows: Preamble.

I. Any Bank trading in Canada may avail itself of the Act passed in the session held in the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to encourage Shipbuilding within this Province," and such Bank shall have, possess and enjoy all and every the powers, benefits and advantages which an advancer now enjoys and possesses under the said Act; and any Bank advancing on any ship in progress of construction according to the provisions of the said Act shall be considered an advancer under the said Act. Banks in Canada may avail themselves of the Act 19, 20 V. c. 50.