DEVLIN, Lieut.-Col. BERNARD. [Montreal Centre.] 3RD MEM.

S. of a once extensive landed proprietor in Co. Roscommon, Irel. B. there, 15 Dec., 1824. Ed. in Dublin and studied for the medical profession under his uncle, Dr. Charles Devlin, of Ballina, Co. Mayo. Accompanied his father to Can. when young, and settled in the City of Quebec, where he presented himself before the Board of Medical Examiners for admission to the practice of the profession, but was refused on the ground that he was under 21 years of age. Entered the ranks of journalism and founded the Freeman's Journal [Quebec] of which he became editor, but soon afterwards abandoned that paper on his removal to Montreal, where he was also associated with the press, becoming at the same time a student at law under Edward Carter, Esq., Q.C., late M. P. for Brome in the House of Commons, and was duly called to the Bar, Oct., 1847. Called to the Bar of Ont., Michaelmas Term, 1868. Enjoys a large lucrative practice, especially as a criminal lawyer. Is Counsel to the Harbor Commrs. of that city; and was for some years up to Dec., 1875, joint City Attorney for Montreal. Amongst other important causes, was retained, during the late Am. war, by the U.S. Govt., as their counsel in the prosecution of the St. Albans' raiders. M., 1848, Miss Anna Eliza Hickey, of Brooklyn, N.Y.. [she died, 13 June, 1875.] Is Presdt. of the St. Patrick's Society of Montreal [an office he has held on several occasions]; and a mem. of the Executive of the Reform Assn. of the Parti National. Was a delegate to the Catholic Convention to promote actual settlement in North Am., which met at Buffalo, 1856, and was elected a mem. of the Supreme Directory of Can. in connection with that Convention. Sat in the City Council of Montreal during seven consecutive years, and while a mem. of that body, proposed the establishment of the Mount Royal Park, and finally succeeded in carrying the scheme, notwithstanding the most strenuous opposition. Was for fifteen
