

POLITICAL PANEL

The department of political science will hold a panel discussion entitled "American Politics in Upheaval" tonight in room T LB-1, Tory Building, at 7:30 p.m.

The panel, chaired by Professor L.C. Green, will include Professors F.C. Englemann, J.A. Lejniaks, and Leon Craig of the department of political science; and Professor D.V. Kerig, visiting professor in the Faculty of Law.

ELECTION RESULTS

Students' Council will welcome two new members when it meets Nov. 5. The new members, Jay Herringer and Bluth Nuttal, were elected in a by-election in Arts and Education held Oct. 19.

In Education, Nuttal defeated Young Socialist candidate Sheila

Mawson 108 to 51 while Herringer received the greatest number of votes in a preferential Arts ballot.

Other Arts candidates, in order of finish, were Kimball Cariou, Robin Mann, Dave Hancock and Henry Malta.
