CHSR-FM's Pro

Can-Con: Three different three-hour shows weekly. Friday night's is strictly Canuck rock'n'roll while the two morning shows focus on the different styles in our land. Lesser known and new artists are found here.

Time-Warp: This show traces the history of music and news on Campus. Featured are the important groups and artists of the year, plus the major news happenings in the world and on Campus. The series will start with 1966 on January 26th, and progress yearly each week.

A Touch of Class: An intelligent study of classical music, featuring the composers, and paying attention to history, conductors, performers, location, etc. Watch for weekly dedications to certain composers.

New Stuff: Title speaks for itself. This show will offer cuts from the best new releases of the week, whether famous or otherwise.

Studio 'D': A program of live music and interviews from the bands who come to town, big names or tavern rock. Lots of great quality live sets. Jan. 27: Harry Chapin, Feb. 3: Dutch Mason.

This Is Jazz: An open format approach to the best in contemporary jazz. Hear your favorites here.

Jazz On Record: A more intense study of the history of jazz right up to modern day. The first two hours of the show will progress from ragtime thru to swing, be-bop, and hard bop. The last hour will give selections of jazz-fusion, or be devoted to a particular artist. Jan. 25: An introduction to the show style. Feb. 1: Weather Report. Feb. 8: Open Format. Feb. 15: Dave Brubeck.

Open Heartland: Our folk show, will bring you the best of the Folk style from the old cultures to modern day. We are proud to announce the availability of live recordings and interviews from the performers at the Fredericton Folk Collective's, and the Woodshed. Jan. 30: The Cheiftains Live!

Reggae Culture: An extensive collection of reggae, Caribbean, and calypso makes this show possible. Not only does it draw on the famous Rastafarians, but takes in reggae from other countries, including Canada. Jan. 29, Feb. 5: Intro to Reggae. Feb. 12: Rastafarian Culture. Feb. 19: Bob Marley.

Feature: Congenial hosts look at the career of a major recording artist, taking great pains in research, and compiling a comprehensive guide to their music. Jan. 29: Van Morrison. Feb. 5: David Bowie. Feb. 12: Remember Little Feat!

In The Mood: Big Band Time. The in-depth approach, for collectors, connoisseurs, and just plain fans. With Jazz On Record makes Sunday night Jazz Night!

Les Bleus Du Dimanche: En Français. Consists of French-Canadian music, past and present. All descriptions of music presented including local performances.
