VOLUNTEERING IS GIVEN HIGH ESTEEM BY EMPLOYERS

The York University Student Volunteer Centre is already booked solid for the first 3 weeks of school. Why? Because more and more students are realizing that employers look at not only educational background but also practical experience when assessing a resume. Students come to the Volunteer Centre to seek Teacher's Aid positions, Counselling positions, and many more. Many students, faculty and staff members volunteer for reasons of self fulfillment. Whatever the reason volunteer and increase your chances of landing that special job. To book an appointment or obtain further information call Phyllis Caparelli (Co-Ordinator) or Darryl Gershater (Appointment Secretary) at 736-2100, Ext. 3576 or come visit us at 112 Central Square (next to CYSF).
