Ottawa, 28th April, 1909.

Sir,

I enclose herewith an account rendered at $104.60, from Mr Thomas Waterman, Clerk for the Overseers for the Poor District No 9, Lunenburg County, Nova Scotia, for the maintenance and care of Indian Thomas Bartlett from July 28th 1908 to March 23rd 1909. The account reached the Department through Mr A.K. McLean, M.P. Kindly supply Mr Waterman with the regular Departmental voucher forms and have him render the account in question thereon, in duplicate. Receipts for payments made should be attached to the voucher. When the account is returned to you by Mr Waterman, in proper form, you should certify thereto and forward to the Department, without delay.

You should report whether you can make arrangements to have Bartlett cared for in future at less cost.

Your obedient servant.

Secretary.
