December 29, 1919.

Sir,-

I have your letter of the 5th with regard to the loan for Simon Samuel Nevin.

You might advise me whether the expenditure should not be under the supervision of Indian Agent McLennan at Glendale. You might also advise me exactly where this man intends farming and how close it is to the Agent's place of residence. I would also like to have your definite recommendation as to whether, granted proper supervision, this loan should be made.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

A. J. Boyd, Esq.,
Indian Superintendent,
