

A Daughter of the Marionis

THE SCOTSMAN says:—"Mr. Oppenheim's stories always display much melodramatic power and considerable originality and ingenuity of construction. These and other qualities of the successful writer of romance are manifest in 'A Daughter of the Marionis.' Full of passion, action, strongly-contrasted scenery, motives, and situations."

The Mystery of Mr. Bernard Brown

THE DAILY GRAPHIC says:—"Mr. E. Phillips Oppenheim has a remarkable gift of making up an exciting story."

THE ABERDEEN DAILY JOURNAL says:—"The story is rich in sensational incident and dramatic situations. It is seldom, indeed, that we meet with a novel of such power and fascination."

The Man and His Kingdom

THE FREEMAN'S JOURNAL says:—"It is high praise to say that in this novel the author has surpassed his previous thrilling and delightful story, 'The Mysterious Mr. Sabin.' Yet that high praise is eminently deserved. Through a perfect whirl of exciting and amazing incident we are carried with unflagging interest to the happy climax. The story is worthy of Merriman at his very best. It is a genuine treat for the ravenous and often disappointed novel reader."

The World's Great Secret

THE WORLD says:—"If engrossing interest, changing episode, deep insight into human character, and bright diction are the sine qua non of a successful novel, then this book cannot but bound at once into popular favour. It is so full withal of so many dramatic incidents thoroughly exciting and realistic. There is not one dull page from beginning to end."

A Monk of Cruta

THE BOOKMAN says:—"Intensely dramatic. The book is an achievement at which the author may well be gratified."

Mysterious Mr. Sabin

THE LITERARY WORLD says:—"As a story of incident, with a deep-laid and exciting plot, this of the 'Mysterious Mr. Sabin' can hardly be surpassed."

The Secret

THE STANDARD says:—"We have no hesitation in saying that this is the finest and most absorbing story that Mr. Oppenheim has ever written. It glows with feeling; it is curiously fertile in character and incident, and it works its way onward to a most remarkable climax."

THE DUNDEE ADVERTISER says:—"Mr. Oppenheim is a past master in the management of exciting incidents, and in this novel he has excelled his former successes."
