

INDEX

Alden, Colonel Ichabod, in command of fort at Cherry Valley, 78.

American Revolution, the Indians and the, 29; end of, 99-100.

Anne, Queen, her gifts to the Mohawks, 129.

Arnold, General, defeated by Carleton, 45; his ruse at Fort Stanwix, 62.

Boswell, James, and Joseph Brant, 6 note, 43.

Bouquet, Colonel, British commander at Bushy Run, 25.

Brant, Catherine, third wife of Joseph Brant, 97, 135.

Brant, Isaac, dies from wound inflicted by his father, 135-6.

Brant, John, and the reference to his father in 'Gertrude of Wyoming,' 71, 97.

Brant, Joseph, his birth and parentage, 1-8; at Lake George, 13, 15-16; in fight at Fort Niagara, 19; sent by Sir William Johnson to Dr Wheelock's school in Connecticut, 20-4; as an interpreter, 23-4; in Pontiac's War, 25; weds daughter of an Oneida chief, 26; Sir

William Johnson's confidence in, 26; assists in Biblical translations, 26-7, 127-8; made secretary to Colonel Guy Johnson, 30; a 'Pine-tree Chief,' 31; assumes the leadership of the Iroquois in war, 32; his appeal to the Oneidas to remain loyal in American Revolution, 34; with Colonel Guy Johnson secures the Iroquois for the British, 36-7; leading spokesman in interview with Sir Guy Carleton, 39; given a captain's commission, 39; received by George III in London, 41-2; meets James Boswell, 6 note, 43; his portrait by George Romney, 43-4; at Oquaga, 46, 65; General Herkimer sent to negotiate peace with him, 49-51; Herkimer's treachery, 52-3; with Colonel St Leger at Fort Stanwix, 55-62; inflicts heavy blow on Americans at Oriskany, 57-61; with Burgoyne, 63; his kindness of heart at Springfield and Schoharie, 65-7, 98-9; and at Cherry Valley, 79-81, 83; his answer to charge of barbarity,