GAME WAS A TIE

Chatham and Detroit Play an Even Game for Championship of West.

One of the Fastest and Best
Lacrosse Games Seen in Years—Score 1 to 1—Detroit Refused to Play
Game Out—O'Connor Hurt.

CHATHAM—ONE!
DETROIT—ONE!
Such was the finish of the long anticipated game for the championship of the Western Peninsula, and it still remains unsettled, notwithstanding the fact that Manager Frank Babcock, of the Chatham team, offered Field Captain Mude, of the Detroit aggregation, $25 to finish the contest, and followed that proposition with another offering of $10 per minute while the game continued, until either side scored.

In the meantime the Detroiters had decamped with a will and only one or two were to be seen.
As far as outsiders were concerned both teams were on a par, each having a few and neither denying it. Although the outside men played cracking good games, still none of them excelled some of our own players to a great extent.

The crowd was as great as the most sanguine had anticipated. The rush for tickets for the special which left Chatham about 3.15, was a fright. The train was jammed to the doors with an enthusiastic crowd of loyal supporters of our boys, many of the crowd being ladies. The Regimental Band accompanied the routers and upon arrival at Blenheim led the procession to the Fair grounds, where the game was to take place.

The side bet of $100 between the managers, like all other bets, is called off on account of the tie, although no one doubts that if the game had been continued for but a short few minutes Chatham would have won.

JUST HOW IT WAS:
Wm. Henry, Mayor of Blenheim, refereed the game, and down his whistle for the face-off and the game was off. Chatham sticks carried ball down the field, and after nervously hovering around the Detroit stronghold for about 30 seconds Angus scored Chatham's goal on a fine shot, after excellent combination work on the part of the boys.

In the first five minutes of the play the ball did not at one time pass the centre mark, but remained in Detroit territory, and the Chatham home kept up a fusillade of shots on their opponent's goal, and only the strong defence work of the routers and his associates kept the ball from the net. It was plainly evident that the Chathamites had them going from the start.

Detroit scored (1) its goal in the last part of the first quarter. McDonald, who was in the net for Chatham, stopped the ball, but it dropped in front of the goal, and in an endeavor to push it out he is said to have knocked it in. Phil Errett was not in the goal at the time. Jas. McCuen, however, who was goal, umpire, who did not go in, but his decision was not taken, and the score was tied.

The second half was much the same as the first, in that the sphere was pretty much in the Yankees' quarters throughout.

Robt. Wilson, who was in the net for Chatham, but it went to the net. Tierney cleared many times during second half.

Mooney, at point for our boys, was right at himself and cleared in good style resultant in, on one occasion, one of the best combination work of the day by Ross and O'Connor. There was no scoring in this quarter, and the ball was on Detroit citadel at half-time.

The third quarter was Detroit's best. It was at the beginning of this quarter that Phil Errett in goal for Chatham, who had practically nothing to do, was kept quite busy. He made some excellent stops, one exceedingly lightning-like from Sewall, he turned in fine style. A minute later there was excitement for fair. McDonald was close on goal and had a clear shot. He quickly raised his stick to shoot but it was a failure, Grant had butted in and Mac lost the chance of the day. It was in this quarter, too, that Tom O'Connor was deliberately struck in the face by a Detroitite, breaking his nose and putting him out for the rest of the game. It was a most unfortunate circumstance, because O'Connor was playing a star game and was a great acquisition to the home. O'Connor nervously wanted to continue to play, but Babcock wouldn't stand for it. After quite a delay, play was resumed, and at three-quarter time neither seemed to have the advantage.

The last quarter found Detroit bunched on the defence, and rose after rise on Chatham's part failed to draw them out. On several occasions Babcock, at cover point cleared and carried the sphere well into opposition territory. Ross, too, had his sprinting clothes on, and the way he ran round that field, almost all the way round, coming out with the ball, was a caution. The play drew much applause from spectators. Hayden was right there with the goods when occasion called, and especially in the last part of the game. Hayden had three shots,

Thomas one and Angus one, and, as has before been stated, had there been but a couple of minutes more of play the result would have been different. The game ended, however, without further scoring.

TO BE COMPLIMENTED.
Everyone is high in praise of the enterprising and energetic manner in which, single handed, Manager Babcock, of the team, has carried out to such huge success, the task of arranging and pulling off this the best game of the season. The time, worry and expense were great and the lacrosse enthusiasts of the city and, in fact the county, should join in a hearty three cheers and a tiger for such an event.

"We will wind up the season," says Mr. Babcock, "with a banquet to the boys and executive in a week's time. The last game will likely be that with Wallaceburg here on Thursday next. The Bangers wanted that game played on neutral grounds, but I thought it best to give the home supporters of the local team a chance to see a good exhibition of lacrosse without expense to them."

NOTES.

F. Tierney got his for ten minutes. It seemed a little slow at intervals.

The band brightened things up between quarters.

What do you think of Blenheim's dustless gravel roads?

The Detroiters looked very much like a bunch of quitters.

W. Jahnke is official time recorder and was right in the game.

The picket grand stand, a sharp affair, seated a hundred or so.

Bert Ross, Hayden, in fact all the Chathamites played in grand style.

The spectators were forced by the policemen to vacate the only shady spot in side.

Tommy Higley and Frank Knight earned many hearty cheers. They both played grand games.

When two players were laid off for five minutes Mooney says "Two for five, boys; two for five."

Cline in goal secured a large Union Jack in the last quarter and draped the back of Detroit goal with it.

Frank Douse and Dr. King did fine work for the visitors. The latter had a bone in his right hand broken.

Mayor Wm. Henry, of Blenheim, proved a capable referee. He is unquestionably one of the best officials in the west.

Four hundred and thirteen tickets were purchased for the special and there were 1,475 paid admissions to the grounds.

Many Chathamites drove out to see the great game and presented fine appearances, conspicuous was the turnout of Will Jahnke.

A rush for tickets, a rickety ride, a dusty walk, a fast game of lacrosse, a rush for supper, a rush for the train, and you've got the event.

Phil Errett in goal is "the goods." In the second quarter he got away with two successive magnificent stops at close quarters that earned him repeated applause.

Each goal had a Canadian and Yankee flag. All the Detroit boys are Canadians and one was heard to ask "What have they got the Yankee flags up for. We're all Canucks."

Billy Wilson played a splendid game. His hard aggressive work throughout contributed much to the interest of the game and although he received an ugly gash at the commencement, he stuck at his post and did brilliant work.

The accident to O'Connor was most unfortunate. O'Connor was playing brilliantly, his stick handling and combination work being superb. Had Tom remained in the game there is little doubt that the victory would have been Chatham's.

IN BLENHEIM.
Blenheim, Aug. 12.—The supremacy match between Chatham and Detroit has been played and is not a tie. It was not played to a finish.

PURITY. LAGER BEER

"The Beer That is Brewed in Glass"

Steel tanks, glass lined, are cleaner than wood can ever be, and an inspection of our closed, glass lined tanks will convince anyone of their undoubted advantage in that great essential of a successful brewery, viz., CLEALINESS.

Our beer differs in no way from a beer perfectly fermented in open tanks, providing the cellars, the tanks and the atmosphere in which the beer is fermented are absolutely free from bacteria or contaminating infection. These conditions are seldom possible and THE CLOSED TANK SYSTEM IS THE ONLY INSURANCE AGAINST RISK OF CONTAMINATION.

To be reasonably successful an open fermentation system should have floors, walls and ceilings lined with vitrified tile, and wooden fermenting vats must be without the slightest flaw and renewed frequently. The ordinary wood and brick cellars generally become impregnated with foul odors known as "cellar smells" which is absorbed by the beer, in an open fermenting vat. WATCH FOR IT and REJECT BEER that has any aroma other than hops and malt.

A loose knot or stove joint, or shabby wood in a stove, will secrete enough bacteria to render every brew unhealthy and unfit to use.

A cellar or vat once infected can never be purified, except by destroying them, and most brewers will keep on using them, rather than incur the great expense of reconstruction.

IS IT NOT BETTER TO USE A BEER that is NOT SUBJECTED TO DETERIORATING INFLUENCES?
