PREFACE.

The Publishers in presenting this, their Third Edition of the City of London Directory, beg to state that a thorough canvass of the city and surroundings has been made and every effort used to obtain the name of every person who should be represented in a Directory. This being the first work issued since the houses have been numbered makes it more valuable than any of its predecessors. Heretofore a Directory could only tell you between what streets a person resided, making it necessary to enquire at several houses before you found the right one. With the numbers this trouble is entirely done away with, and consequently is a great saving of time to the number of persons who daily have to look to a Directory for information. No pains or expense have been spared to make this work a fit representative of the importance and enterprise of the Forest City of the West.

The Subscribers' Classified Business Directory contains almost every business and Professional man in the city.

The Miscellaneous Directory furnishes a large amount of information, useful to the citizens as well as the numerous strangers who visit the city on business or pleasure. Special attention has been paid to this portion of the work.

In taking leave of their patrons till next year, they have much pleasure in thanking them for their liberal patronage in the shape of subscriptions and advertisements. To the Proprietors of the city papers, their special thanks are tendered.
