RETURNING CONFIDENCE

The storm is the test of the ship. The strength of the Empire is being tested by the fiercest gale that every blew.

With the nation the institutions that compose it have suffered; not one financial organization has escaped.

The Life Insurance companies of England and Canada are being tested and tried but are not found wanting.

The Mutual of Canada, for instance, has not only held its own but has made substantial progress during every day of the war.

The wave of returning confidence finds The Mutual of Canada on the crest, stronger and more prosperous than ever.

THIS month The Great-West Life Assurance Company celebrates its twenty-fourth anniversary.

In August, 1892, The Great-West Life commenced business in the then sparsely settled West. The Company's subsequent history is intimately linked with the vast developments of the Western Provinces. Its business has grown amazingly—and by its loaning operations The Great-West Life has taken no inconspicuous part in upbuilding the West and Western enterprises.

The twenty-fourth anniversary finds The Great-West Life with a business in force of over ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIVE MILLION DOLLARS—with assets exceeding TWENTY MILLION DOLLARS—and with over SIXTY THOUSAND Policyholders.
