NEWS FROM IRELAND

DUBLIN.

The Emergency Committee appointed by the Orange Lodge of Ireland met on Dec. 23d, and considered various applications for assistance from persons who are embarrassed by the action of the Land League. It was resolved to encourage th formation of branches wherever needed, and to enrol persons willing to enter the service of landed proprietors who may re-on Dec. 27th, when Mr. Parnell entered a cab at the City Hall, for the purpose of going to the Imperial Hotel, the horse was taken from the cab, and the vehicle with taken from the cab, and the vehicle with the hon. member for Cork itside was drawn to the hotel. For an hour the enormous crowd blocked Sackville street, repeatedly cheering for Mr. Parnell, and calling on him to speak from the balcony. When he left the hotel, the cab was again drawn with a concourse of five or six thousand people to the City Hall.

A sheriff's sale of a farmer's stock was to have taken place on Dec. 18th, at Baldoyle, county Dublin, on the farm of a farmer named Peter Daly, but a notice had been issued by the Land League that the auction was to enforce payment of an the auction was to enforce payment of an unjust debt, and advising every Land Leaguer to attend the sale. "Now or Leaguer to attend the sale. "Now or never let the people attend in their tens of thousands." There was a very large attendance of farmers, but there was so bidding, and the demeanor of the people was threatening. Mr. Hogan, the agent's son, produced a revolver, which was taken from him by the police. The people the graph of the people o cheered, and the auctioneer expres regret at having anything to say to the sale. There were no bidders, and there was no sale.

WEXFORD.

On Dec. 26th, a monster demonstration of the Land League was held at Duncorof the Land League was held at Duncor-mack. There were contingents from the several surrounding districts. The St. John's Independant Band and Teetotal-lers' Band, Wexford, played various Na-tional airs during the proceedings. The platform was crowded with tenant-farmers and clergymen. Throughout the whole affair not a single incident occurred that would detract from the terms of "law and order." Dr. Cardiff was enthusiastically

QUEEN'S COUNTY.

A monster meeting was held at Cullohill, on Sunday, Dec. 26th. The meeting was convened after a few hours' notice when it was known that a meeting to be held at Borris-in-Ossory, was proclaimed. The military were in Cullohill on the previous Sunday and prevented as vious Sunday, and prevented a meeting being held there. The most remarkable feature in the meeting was the attendance of about 200 men on horsebarck, wearing green sashes and Parnell medals. The chair was taken by Mr. Ryan, P. P., Durrow, Mr. Mulhallen Marum, M. P., and the Rev. Mr. Rowan, C. C., Durrow spoke.

KING'S COUNTY.

A large land meeting under the auspice of the National Land League came off at Birr, on Dec. 27th. Great enthusiasm and unanimity prevailed. The town was decorated with flags and banners; at short intervals green emblems spanned the streets, and flags floated from conspicuous places bearing such mottoes as "The land for the people," "Ireland for the Irish," "Success to Parnell," "We are unequalled on the globe," &c. The Rev. Mr. Kennedy, P. P., Roscrea, was moved to the

A procession with lighted torches, an nounced to be held at Kildare, and to be followed by a meeting at which the Duke of Leinster's leases were to be burned, were prohibited by proclamation, but the town was illuminated and the meeting was held. About one hundred soldiers were present, under Col. Forbes, a cousin of the Duke of Leinster. A number of the members of the Army Service Corps were brought from the Curragh with ambulance waggons. The leases were burned, and the meeting was addressed by Mr. Lalor, M. P., and others.

LOUTH.

The woman Ca'lan, who boycotted a great for the district around Ballybay was held in Aughnamulion West. The meeting was attended by the clergy of the neighborhood. The Rev. J. McKenna, P. P., occupied the chair. The usual resolutions were adopted. A procession with lighted torches, an-

The woman Ca'lan, who boycotted a farmer named Halfpenny, of Ratheady, at Dundalk market, on Dec. 20th, was brought up before the magistrates for her conduct in connection with the affair, and sent to jail for 14 days. Early on Christmas morning an attempt was made to burn the Milmount Military Barrack, at Drogheda. The Barracks commands the town on the southern acclivity, and consists of a fort and several blocks of buildings constituting the of-face, and soldiers quarters. It has been ficers' and soldiers' quarters. It has been unoccupied since the Louth Militia were disbanded in summer last, and left in charge of an old pensioner.

CORK.

A case of reinstating an evicted tenant A case of reinstating an evicted tenant occurred at Cilslagh, near Butlerstown, on Dec. 22d. A family named Donovan held twenty-five acres of land, and getting into difficulties let a portion of it, with the Into dimensions. In the consent, to an adjoining tenant. The rent got in arrears, proceedings were taken by the landlord against both parties, and a decree for possession obtained. They were evicted last February. It is stated at the eviction that the tenant who has let the portion of the land assisted the bailiffs in putting out Donovan, and helped to throw down their dwelling-shouse. He subsequently settled with the landlord, got possession of the farm from which they were evicted, and now holds it. The man Donovan went to England to earn something for his family. The neighbors built them a sort of miserable hut, at Dunworley, where they lived in a wretched condition. LIMERICK.

The Dublin Gazette of Dec. 24th contains a proclamation by the Lord Lieutenant de-claring that the county of Limerick is in a state of disturbance, and requires an additional force of police.

CLARE.

The police force in the county Clare are to be immediately augmented. The publicans have been warned by the police not to refuse goods to persons "Boycotted" under penalty of losing their licences, but some of them persist in disregarding the injuction rather than run the risk of being "Boycotted." The Rev. James Bowles, P. P., T. F., died at his residence, Tulla, on Christmas Day, at the advanced age of 70 years. He was born in the parish of Tulla, on the 10th of Aug., 1811.

TIPPERARY.

At Cashel Petty Sessions on Dec. 29th, the magistrates fined Michael Cummins, Patrick Maher and John Looby, £5 each for the offence of "Boycotting," directing that as it was the first prosecution in the county, no warrant would issue for two months. The character of the complaint against them was compelling William Fitzgerald by intimidation to subscribe to the Parnell Defence Fund.

ARMAGH.

A terrible outbreak of fever, said to have been imported in foreign flax, has taken place at Tandragee. One hundred and nine persons are now prostrate. There are numerous deaths daily. Eleven persons were buried on January 10th and thirteen on the following day.

DOWN.

A tenant-right meeting was held on Dec. 23d at Saintfield, near Downpatrick. A contingent of Orangemen arrived from Downpatrick, but they were prevented by the police from interrupting the proceed-ings. Messrs. Dillon, Biggar and Davitt, delivered addresses, the last named asking the farmers not to pay more than Grif-

GALWAY.

A large force of constabulary proceeded on Dec. 18th from Tuam and Kilkenny to Springfield, near Williamstown, to aid a fierce resistance to the police, whom they pelted with stones and mud, and anything else they could obtain. Captain Ryan, the Resident Magistrate at Castlerea, lyan, the Resident Magistrate at Castlerea, then read the Riot Act, and amid showers of mud and stones the police forced their way with drawn swords across a bridge. They did not, however, fire upon the mob, but proceeded on their duty, being able to serve only a few of the notices.

Great excitement prevailed at Williamstown, county Galway, where ejectments were served by the police on December 29th. A large and threatening crowd assembled, and the constabulary telegraphed for reinforcements. Some hours afterwards contingents arrived from Dromore and Tuam, but there was no disturbance.

Cathartic Pills

Combine the choicest cathartic principles in medicine, in proportions accurately adjusted to secure activity, certainty, and uniformity of effect. They are the result of years of careful study and practical experiment, and are the most effectual remedy yet discovered for diseases caused by derangement of the stomach, liver, and bowels, which require prompt and effectual treatment. Ayer's Pills are specially applicable to this class of diseases. They act directly on the digestive and assimilative processes, and restore regular act directly on the digestive and assimi-lative processes, and restore regular healthy action. Their extensive use by physicians in their practice, and by all civilized nations, is one of the many proofs of their value as a safe, sure, and perfectly reliable purgative medicine. Being compounded of the concentrated virtues of purely vegetable substances, they are positively free from calomel or any injurious properties, and can be admin-istered to children with perfect safety.

Ayen's Pills are an effectual cure for Constipation or Costiveness, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Foul Stomach and Breath, Dizzines, Headache, Loss of Memory, Numbness, Biliousness, Jaundice, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Dropsy, Tumors, Worms, Neuralgia, Colic, Gripes, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Gout, Piles, Disorders of the Liver, and all other diseases resulting from a disordered other diseases resulting from a dis-state of the digestive apparatus.

As a Dinner Pill they have no equal.

While gentle in their action, these Pills are the most thorough and searching cathartic that can be employed, and never give pain unless the bowels are inflamed, and then their influence is healing. They stimulate the appetite and digestive organs; they operate to purify and enrich the blood, and impart renewed health and vigor to the whole system.
