BRANDON LIBERAL CONVENTION

A. E. Hill, merchant, of Griswold, was chosen as the Liberal nominee for Brandon constituency, at a convention held at Brandon on August 11. The convention developed into something of a struggle between the Grain Growers and the straight Liberals. J. W. Scallion was the Grain Growers' candidate, while Mr. Hill was put up by the regulars. Several others were nominated but all withdrew except Messrs. Scallion, Hill and J. W. Fleming. On the first ballot the latter polled only 14 votes and was forced out. On the second and final ballot Mr. Scallion received 94 votes while his opponent got an even hundred, making Mr. Hill the nominee. On motion the nomination was made unanimous.

Alexandria, Egypt, Aug. 7.—A boat overloaded with natives on their way to a fair at Dessak foundered in the Nile. Nearly 200 persons were drowned. Thirty-six bodies were recovered.
