

THE COLONIAL AND INDIAN TROOPS

Members of the Colonial and Indian Contingents were presented with Coronation medals by His Majesty "medalling" members of the Northwest Mounted Police. The medals, and by his side stands Prince Arthur of Connaught, son of the King. On the right of the picture are seated Queen Mary and Prince Christian. Lord

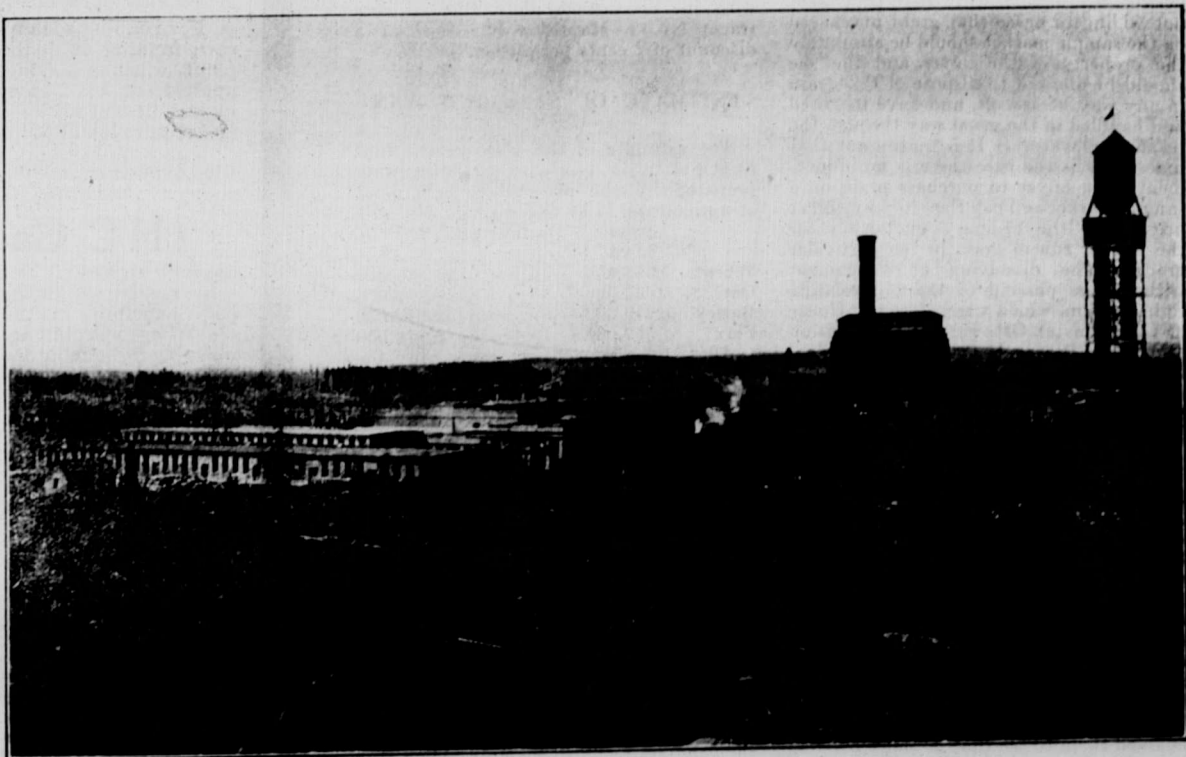

HIS MAJESTY THE KING AT EDINBURGH

Historic picture of the visit of King George V and Queen Mary, with Prince of Wales and Princess Mary, passing down Princes street, Edinburgh, on their arrival. Showing Scott's Monument and part of the Castle in the background.

H.M.C.S. NIOBE

Which recently narrowly escaped being wrecked in the "graveyard of the Atlantic," off Sable Island. The above picture gives a rather unusual view of the ship.

A GREAT NEW PAPER-MAKING INDUSTRY IN NEWFOUNDLAND

A general view of the huge paper plant at Grand Falls, Newfoundland, showing the mills, water-tank and acid-tower. This is the great institution owned by Lord Northcliffe (Alfred Harmsworth) where the paper for his many journals is manufactured.