To these Bills, the Clerk of the Senate, by His Excellency's command, did thereupon say:

"His Excellency the Governor General doth reserve these Bills for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon."

The Speaker of the House of Commons then said:

"MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY:—

"The Commons of Canada have voted the supplies required to enable the Government to defray the expenses of the Public Service."

"In the name of the Commons I present to Your Excellency a Bill intituled an Act for granting to Her Majesty certain sums of money required for defraying certain expenses of the Public Service for the financial years ending respectively the 30th June, 1877, and the 30th June, 1878, and for other purposes relating to the Public Service, of which I humbly request your Excellency's assent."

To this Bill the Royal Assent was signified in the following words:—

"In Her Majesty's name, His Excellency the Governor General thanks Her loyal subjects, accepts their benevolence, and assents to this Bill."

His Excellency the Governor-General was then pleased to address the two Houses in the following Speech:—

"Honourable Gentlemen of the Senate:

"Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

"In relieving you from further attendance in Parliament, I beg to convey to you my thanks for the diligence with which you have applied yourselves to the performance of your duties.

"Among the numerous measures you have passed are several of considerable public importance.

"The improved provision for the incorporation of Joint Stock Companies will, I trust, tend to the establishment of such companies under the operation of sound general rules, rather than by special and exceptional legislation.

"The law as to Insurance Companies will add to the existing securities of Canadian insurers.

"The alteration of the duties on petroleum will confer a great boon to the masses of the population.

"The vast shipping interests of our great inland seas will be benefitted by the extension to the trade on those waters of rights and remedies, the utility of which has been recognized by long experience.
