Tomorrow's game on the local diamond amounts one way or another to a good deal more than a mere ball game.

A win for Belleville means they regain the top of the heap as it's the only game fixed for the mid-week date.

But y'gawds a win for Lindsay? Well a win for the Greybirds puts them on a dizzy pedestal and the local does the second-raters—that's what it does.

And the way these birds in Lindsay are crowing gives one the ache in the head.

Listen to the sport man of the Lindsay edition—

Due to the exertions of certain kindly disposed teams on Saturday the Lindsay Greybirds now perch on the top of the Central League heap. Belleville was jolted out of this enviable position by Port Hope, who beat them by a 13-12 score in rip-roaring battle lasting ten innings. Oshawa took their Cobourg game with a 5-0 score.

With three games won and one lost, Lindsay stands first on a percentage of .750. Belleville and Oshawa are tied for second hole with four won and two lost—percentage .667. Port Hope is fourth with .428 percentage, followed by Peterboro with an even .400, and Cobourg's .167.

The Greybirds have a chance to make the position secure this week by beating Belleville on their own ground. On Wednesday, the eastern town will see a battle royal. The Lindsay gang beat Goyer on his own held last time and are quite ready to do it again.

On Saturday next Oshawa visits Peterboro and Port Hope at Cobourg "Right off the Ice Coats". Of course the "charge" made by the Oshawa Telegram about ice boxes or something and dented baseballs, is too stupid to entertain. But it has been re-printed all around the circuit. The Lindsay Post prints it but says:

We cannot credit the serious charge made by the Oshawa Telegram that the Belleville Club deliberately placed three baseballs on a block of ice over night before the Oshawa game in Belleville, so that the Oshawa nine were unable to hit the "water-soaked, or soggy balls" out of the infield, while Belleville managed to slip the Umpire real new balls when they went to bat. True Goyer had a no-hit game, but we believe that the Belleville club is being libelled and that the charge is false, even before we hear the evidence.

A Peterboro View
Peterboro sizes it up just like this. The unexpected defeat of Belleville at the hands of Port Hope on Saturday stopped the runaway career of the Belleville team and once more the Central League race is anybody's with only a game and a one-half separating the first team from the fifth. One of the most important games of the series will be played here on Saturday, when Oshawa, the winners of the first half, will be here to do battle with the Petes. The Solomon crew have to win this game to stay in the running, for a loss to Oshawa would kill the chances of the local crew. Dainty is back in Osh-

BIG TOURNEY ROLLS MERRILY ALONG;

GETTING NEAR DECISION FOR RIGGS' CUP;

IN AND OUT TURNS OF FIRST DAY'S PLAY

At noon today the semi-finals in the Riggs' Competition at the Bowling Tournament at the Belleville green were reached and at one-thirty p.m. the contests began to decide who should enter the finals. President W. B. Riggs was skipping the rink opposing Harry Newman of Kingston and another Belleville rink, that of W. C. Springer was pitted against Detenbeck of Oshawa. The finals were expected to be reached at about three-thirty this afternoon.

The Ritchie Cup Competition was in full swing and early this afternoon the fourth round had been reached. No start had then been made in the Ackerman Cup Competition.

The ideal weather conditions were making the tournament an unqualified success. Every green was in possession of contesting rinks all the time. Secretary "Bob" Wray keeping the competitions speeding along merrily so that not a moment was lost. Even the usual meal hour was neglected, the bowlers snatching an opportunity (and eats) at the refreshment booth.

The games were being witnessed by a host of interested spectators.

Not a hitch so far marred the progress of the tournament.

Tomorrow the Ackerman cup and the singles and doubles will be the features.

THREE BOUTS COMING SOON; WILL DECIDE CITY CHAMPIONS

On September 5th at the Labor picnic, three bouts are to be decided which will declare three city champions. In the first bout Charlie Baker meets Young Baker, and as far as reports go he will have to show something out of the ordinary to win. Up around the station they think there is nothing in the 100-pound class that can stand up to Young Baker in the city, and as Charlie is determined to show his win over Tommy Mathews was no fluke, the bout for the flyweight championship of Belleville is bound to be hotly contested. In the second bout, Bert Wells tackles Harry McDonald for the Bantamweight Championship of the city and as McDonald has said he will win in a walk, Wells is out to show him that he can't.

McDonald will be remembered for his bout with Marakas last winter in the Armouries, when he showed gameness in staying three rounds with him. As he has improved since then and is training hard, he is bound to make a better showing. This will be Wells' first appearance before the public in the ring, but if cleverness and speed count for anything Bert will be right there with the goods. The main bout brings together Theodore Marakas and Ernie Edmunds and will settle the long-standing dispute as to Marakas' gameness. Because he stopped his man inside the limit in his last three bouts while hardly getting touched himself, there seems to be a feeling around town that he's picking easy stuff and can't take punishment. Well, he'll certainly have to take it this time because Edmunds is tough as rawhide and packs a terrific punch in his right hand. And he will be in as good if not better condition than Marakas is. His only appearance here was last winter when he beat Robinson in six rounds at the Armouries. However, opinion is divided as to who will win with Edmunds a slight favorite on account of his fight with Robinson; and who wins will well earn the title of Slightweight Champion of Belleville.

The complete card is: Rattery vs. Baker, four 2 m. rounds, at 100 pounds; Wells vs. McDonald, four 2 m. rounds, at 118 pounds; Marakas vs. Edmunds, six 2 m. rounds, at 138 pounds.
