TE print in another column a con densed summary of the Report of the Royal Commission which investigated the charges preferred by Mr. G. W. Kyte, M. P., at the last session of Parliament at Ottawa. The summary is reprinted from the St. John Evening Times and Star, a journal unfriendly to the present federal administration.

The report is exactly what was expect ed by those who read the evidence day by day during the progress of the investigation. No coruupt act is attributed, in the report, to the Minister of Militia and Defence, but that he should have placed so much confidence in J. Wesley Allison is by implication, deservedly censured. No corruption on the part of any Minister or official was found, and the gravamen of the charges is shown to be without any foundation whatever.

Three men emerge from the investigation tion with damaged reputations, J. Wesley Allison(who has properly divested himself of his honorary colonelcy), G. W. Kyte M. P., and F. B. Carvell, M. P. The patriotism of Allison has been shown to be entirely a matter of profit; the motives of Messrs. Kyte and Carvell are shown with equal clearness to be political partizan-ship in it most agravated form. That on Germany, 1914.
