DETROIT TIGERSCobb Drives Ball Into the Bleachers Scoring Vitt
Ahead of Him.

Boston, Sept. 18.—"Dutch" Leonard never pitched better baseball than he showed the Tigers and 28,000 fans at Fenway Park yesterday afternoon. The score was 7 to 2, but the score does not tell the story.

Up to the ninth inning the Tigers got but one hit, and that was due solely to the fact that Vitt is such a first individual in striding down to first base. In the ninth Leonard became a bit more lenient. Perhaps he wished to show the Tigers, and "Ty" Cobb in particular, that the Hub is a good baseball town, despite the disturbance of the day before. Anyway, he let Cobb have one to his liking. The Georgia Peach liked it so well that he hit it into the right field bleachers for a home run, making one of the longest hits in the history of Fenway Park. Incidentally, Vitt, who had been hit by a pitched ball just before crossed the plate in front of Cobb.

In the first inning the Red Sox started the ball rolling in the way the Boston fans wanted it to roll. The great crowd was baseball mad, and cheered wildly as the first run came across the plate.

After the game progressed and run after run was tallied by the Red Sox, the fans became more and more excited, and the pennant visions, which were somewhat obliterated by the first game going Tigerward, again flamed in the minds of every fan present.

COBB GIVEN OVATION
Cobb was given an ovation every time he went to the plate by almost everyone present, there being but few ungentlemanly enough to continue the booing that was started in the first game of the series. Never was a player more quiet than Cobb. He went about his work in a businesslike way.—the healthful drink

Two Games for Rochester.
Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 17.—Rochester took a double header from Harrisburg yesterday, the first game 4 to 3 in ten innings, and the second game 8 to 4. In the first game, though Erickson yielded the visitors but two hits, these came between misplays by Rochester and resulted in their only runs of the game. Consistent batting by Rochester, however, enabled them to win the second game in the fifth and win out in the tenth. Harrisburg led 4 to 2 in the second game, when Rochester went to bat in the eighth. In this an avalanche of hits drove Lee from the mound and Schacht was unable to stop the onslaught until six runs had crossed the plate. Score:
First game: R. H. E.
Harrisburg 3 2 3
Rochester 4 12
Batteries: Engmann and Heckinger; Erickson and Williams.
Second game: R. H. E.
Harrisburg 4 8 2
Rochester 8 10 2
Batteries: Lee, Schacht and Reynolds; Huenke, Herche and Wana-maker.Leafs Need One Game to Land Third Place
Toronto, Sept. 18.—The International League season will finish in Toronto to-day with a double-header between the Grays and Leafs, for the Providence Grays have taken today's crimp from the Leafs, handing them the pennant, as they have only to win one game of the double-header this afternoon against Jersey City to win the pennant by one point, providing the Grays show the Leafs both games from the Leafs. The latter, though, in order to make third place sure, have to take one of the games this afternoon from the Grays in order to beat out Rochester. Should the Leafs win two and the Leafs lose two the teams would be tied for third place.

Those who attended yesterday's double-header at the Stadium certainly witnessed great baseball, and one of the largest crowds of the season should be on hand this afternoon to give the farewell hand to Manager Clymer and his players. The team will finish better than the .500 mark in matter how the games go to-day. Manager Clymer has looked to-day at his pitchers and it would not be surprising if he sent McTigue right back at the Grays, although it is either Cook's or Manning's turn on the slab.

Playing Clever Ball
Leafs Win Two Games

Toronto, Sept. 18.—The Leafs will not be champions of the league this year, but their inability to get the plum comes through force of circumstances, as the locals are to-day the best team in the International league. Yesterday they demonstrated these facts before the largest week-day crowd of the season, and the result was that they walked off with two games from Providence, the first by 6 to 0 and the second by 3 to 1. Both games were thrilling and well played contests which showed the Leafs the cleverest inside work of the two teams. It marked fifteen won out of the last seventeen games for the Leafs, which is conclusive evidence that they are putting up the A-1 brand of ball.

McTigue pitched the first game and was in fine form. He also made a home run. Williams did likewise in the second game, and the Leafs were as steady as usual in the second game.

At Pittsburgh.—The winning run in the game which Pittsburgh yesterday took from Baltimore was scored in the ninth inning, each team at that time having one run to its credit. Score: R. H. E.
Pittsburgh 1 1 4
Baltimore 0 0 0
Batteries: Conley and Owens; Allen and O'Connor.At St. Louis.—A pitching duel here yesterday between Falkenberg and Davenport resulted in a two to no nothing victory for St. Louis over Brooklyn. Each pitcher allowed two hits. In the eighth inning St. Louis scored two runs. Johnson walked and reached second when Davenport's sacrifice bunt scored on Miller's two base hit. Magee made a bad throw on Marsan's grounder, and Miller scored the second tally. Score: R. H. E.
Brooklyn 0 2 2
St. Louis 2 2 0
Batteries: Falkenberg and Land; Davenport and Chapman.At Kansas City.—Packard's pitching and one good inning gave Kansas City the first of the Newark series yesterday, 3 to 0. The score: R. H. E.
Newark 0 3 0
Kansas City 3 0 0
Batteries: Packard, Moran and Rariden; Packard and Easterly.

SEMI-ANNUAL MEETING

OF O. R. F. U. TO-DAY
The semi-annual meeting of the Ontario Rugby Football Union will be held at the King Edward Hotel, and it promises to be the largest and most representative gathering that the O. R. F. U. have ever held.

The senior series will probably comprise the teams, The T. R. and A. A. held their annual meeting last Thursday night, and will have a very good team. They have their last year's team intact with the exception of D'Arcy Smith, Heffernan and Joe Smith, and will commence training immediately. The Hamilton Rowing Club team, after their showing against the Argonauts last year, look up as a very strong aggregation.

They have all their old team in line from last year and a host of good intermediates to fill in any weak spots. Ottawa have been organizing the past two weeks and should be stronger than last year. On the showing of the London University in winning the junior Dominion championship so easily last year they should round out a very fast senior group.

It is expected that there will be at least 40 teams in the newly formed junior series. Besides the regular junior teams in Toronto, the University schools, High Parks, Riverdale, Parkdale A. C. and some other unattached junior teams will throw in their lot with the Ontario Union. In Hamilton the city league teams and the church league organizations are coming down Saturday with applications for the junior series. The high schools and the collegiate institutes were organized last Fall, and all the schools throughout Western Ontario will be in this series.

The intermediate series will be quite strong also. In Toronto, there will be the Capitals, Parkdale Canoe Club, Don Rowing Club, Broadview Y. M. C. A. and probably a team from the Beach. In Hamilton there will be the Victoria Yacht Club, Hamilton Y. M. C. A. and Hamilton Rowing Club. In Western Ontario, Galt, Dundas, Sarnia, London and Petrolia will be in the intermediate series.

The Hamilton Jockey Club have offered their grounds to the Hamilton Rowing Club in training and games, and it is quite likely that the Rowing Club will accept this offer, where they will have excellent accommodation for both players and spectators, as well as having an excellent playing field.

SIR SAM VISITS
CITY OF BERLIN;
GETS RECEPTION

Rousing Patriotic Demonstration Stimulated Recruiting—Prediction.

Berlin, Ont., Sept. 18.—"It would give me the greatest pleasure of my life to have some of those critics of the loyalty of Berlin and Waterloo take a peep into these doors and witness this demonstration in the interests of recruiting which has been in progress here this week." W. G. Weichel, M.P., declared during his brief address at the monster patriotic meeting.

Yesterday's reception to Gen. Sir Sam Hughes was participated in by all classes of citizens.

On the General's arrival at noon he was the recipient of a genuine surprise when he was greeted by an immense throng at the G.T.R. depot and escorted to the city hall where he was presented with a civic address by Mayor Hett.

Patriotic songs were rendered by 2,000 school children. Gen. Hughes stated he was under the impression that he was coming to a county fair, and had never been informed of this patriotic demonstration.

By special permission of Gen. Hughes, Berlin boys of the 34th and 71st battalions in camp at London were allowed to return to Berlin, and were officially inspected by the General.

Yesterday afternoon, Sir Sam, accompanied by officers of the 108th Regt. and officers of the Citizens Recruiting committee and overseas contingents, motored to Doon.

After the motor trip to Galt, Preston and Waterloo, Gen. Hughes was the guest of the officers of the 108th Regiment at Grand River Country Club. In a brief address, he intimated that immediately after the war he would see to it that Berlin's new regiment was provided with a commodious armory. He also promised to send an inspector to train the local officers of the regiment.

Last night it appeared as if the entire population of Berlin and Waterloo had turned out to do honor to the distinguished guest, and the Berlin boys of the 34th and 71st battalions, at full strength, two companies of the 34th and 71st battalions, C Squadron of the 124th Grey Horse Boy Scouts, and Waterloo Cadets were in line. The cheers along the route of march were deafening.

L. McBrin, chairman of the Citizens Recruiting Committee, presided at the patriotic meeting, and his declaration that the war was the grandest of its kind ever held in Berlin met with popular accord. Brief addresses were delivered by W. G. Weichel, M.P., and Wm. Elliott, M.P., West Middlesex.

Sir Sam was given an ovation when he rose to speak. He declared that never had it fallen to the lot of any public man in Canada to receive a reception of this nature, which he did not take as being given to him, personally, but for the cause which he and the boys of overseas contingents represented. He was in excellent form, and eloquently and impressively dealt with the causes leading up to the war, and proved to the satisfaction of his hearers that the war had not been forced on Germany by the allied nations, but was the result of the achievements of the British navy and the success attending the mobilization of her land forces, the equal of which has never been seen in the world's history. He recounted what he saw in the trenches in France, and eloquently related the graphic story of the Battle of St. Julien, in which the Canadians made a record for bravery unequalled in military history.

In concluding, he appealed to Canadian young men to enlist, and informed young men that among the best soldiers in the various contingents are descendants of German-Canadian parents. "When the armies of Britain, France, Italy and Russia are fully equipped," he declared, "the long-looked-for offensive movement of the allies will commence, and I tell you Germany's race will be run, and inside of a year I predict you boys will be walking home triumphant." This assertion of Gen. Hughes aroused the enthusiasm of the vast audience to a high pitch.
