Trustees Negotiating For A School Site—Rural Cemetery Question

CONTROL OF TRAFFIC Praise For System Of Administration In Force In Simcoe Negotiating for School Site. coe, July 16.—The trustees of the Western suburban school section ecently formed, are confronted with difficulty in the matter of getting a title to the site chosen. The Glazebrook property from which the site was chosen is at present in such a ondition that it is impossible for the board to get a clear deed. The Board is seeking advice as to their power to expropriate, and proceed with the building, and allow the question of title to come through later. There is, however, no difficulty in the matter of dealing with er sections after Dec. 25th next. Rural Cemetery.

cently to tidy up the Windham Centre cemetery. Talk of a good roadway past there is possibly an impetus. The neighborhood feels, no doubt, that they can no longer afford to have such a community advertisement. OU feel almost like shaking hands with a man when he comes to his telephone the moment the bell rings.

If he answers by saying at once "Mr. Blank speaking" instead of using the time-wasting "Hello" or "Well" you are still further pleased for you have saved valuable time and perhaps avoided a whole series of unnecessary questions to find out to whom you are speaking.

To always answer promptly and to announce yourself at once instead of saying "Hello" "Yes" or "Well" will go far toward keeping up the quality of your telephone service.
