THE EXPECTED HAPPENS.

Ever since the commencement of the war Canadians have been faced with soaring costs, not only in food and other household necessities, but in wearing appeared as well.

During all this time manufacturers in all lines have had to face the continual problem of securing materials on a rising market and making up the goods so as to retail at the lowest possible price consistent with quality.

No firm has been more successful in meeting the problem than the Tip Top Tailors. Before-the-war prices precitically prevail to-day. But a change is announced to take place on Friday of this week, and, although the amount of the increase has not been announced, it is safe to say it must be substantial. The price of their suits and overcoats to-day is but $16 made to your measure. In view of the coming increase it would seem like good policy to order at once not one only, but two or even three suits of clothes and an overcoat or two.
