FARMERSVILLE AND VICINITY.

Walks About Town. What Our Reporter Saw, Heard and Noted.

Next Week.

Eng's Ode to Winter, next week.

New Barber Shop.

Byron Smith has opened a Barber Shop in the Gamble House, in the room formerly occupied by A. Buckley. Hair Cutting, Shaving, Shampooing in latest city styles.

Special Offer.

Don't forget the offer made last week, viz. The REPORTER and Toronto Weekly News will be sent to any address for $1.50; or for 5 new subscribers to the Reporter accompanied by the cash $8.75, we will send the News for one year. This offer open 2 weeks.

Fire-works.

Our local pyrotechnic professor illuminated the rink on Saturday evening, by means of cat-tails dipped in kerosene. The illumination was a brilliant success, and we hope the professor's morbid craving for light was entirely satisfied, and that he will refrain from giving any further exhibitions.

Agricultural.

Messrs Jas. Bissell, of Algonquin, and F. H. McCrea of Spring Valley, are at Toronto this week, attending a meeting of Holstein Cattle breeders. It is proposed to open a Holstein Herd Book, and arrangements for that purpose will no doubt be made at this meeting.

Pay up.

Quite a few of our subscribers have not paid for the REPORTER. All who wish to avail themselves of the 75 cent rate must send in the money before the 20th inst. All subscriptions remaining unpaid then, will be charged $1.00.

Judgement Against the County.

At the last meeting of Counties Council, Wm. Stafford, Esq., ex-warden of Leeds and Grenville, presented a bill for services as chairman of the county property committee for last year. The council refused to pay the bill, and Mr. Stafford entered an action in the Division Court in Brockville to recover the amount. The case came up before Judge McDonald, on Wednesday last, 4th inst. Mr. Stafford was the only witness examined, and a verdict for the full amount, viz.: $52 and costs, was awarded.

Left Out.

Look out for Kaufman's add., some local matter and communications left out of this issue, for want of space.

Sugar Social.

There will be a sugar social in the Methodist Church of this place, on Tuesday evening, March the 17th. A splendid program of entertainment has been provided. Admission, 15c.

The Storm.

"Old Prob." promised fine weather on Monday last, but didn't send enough to last all day. The forenoon was fine, but in the afternoon one of the severest windstorms of the season set in and continued all night.

High School Entertainment.

The monthly entertainment of the L. M. A. will be held on Friday evening next. The entertainment will consist of music by the orchestra, instrumental solos, songs, vocal duets, trios, essays, readings, recitations, etc. The programme will be presented by the students of the High School, and this is sufficient guarantee that the entertainment will be in every respect first-class. Admission, as usual.

The Saved Army.

The detachment of the Saved Army stationed here, are holding services every evening in the town hall. The hall is crowded nightly, and though there have not been many conversions, there has taken place a general awakening among church members, and the Army have the sympathy and countenance of all in their earnest endeavors to raise the fallen and redeem the lost.

CORNER for EVERYBODY

With a view of giving the public a cheap mode of advertising, we will insert advertisements in this column at 25c. for 5 lines, or under, first insertion; and 10 cts. for each subsequent insertion.

WANTED--A general Servant. Apply to Mrs. Bannister, Wellington street.

SHINGLES--C. W. LEWIS has for sale, at Addison, 450 M. X. XX. & XXX. Cedar Shingles. Prices as low as the lowest. See him before buying.
