NEWS OF THE DAY

The General Board of Baptist Home Missions met Monday.
Michael McHugh committed suicide at Belleville on Monday.
Chicago has 5,650 saloons, employing 17,050 men and 3,900 women.
It is proposed to found a Macdonald National Memorial Institute in Ottawa.

Henry M. Stanley is richer by $110,000 as the result of his lecture tour in America.

The appeal of the Princess of Wales on behalf of Mrs. Grimwood has been coldly received.

Statistics prove that only one man in a million lives to be one hundred and eight years old.

Northwest Mounted Police captured 180 gallons contraband whiskey at Regina recently.

Donald McLean, a farmer near Lucknow, Ont., was fatally injured at a barn-raising on Saturday.

Despatches from Hayti state that 200 persons were recently put to death there by order of Hippolyte.

Lady Macdonald, widow of the late Premier, has been raised to the peerage as Countess of Earncliffe. One report says she will not accept.

The U. S. Farmers' Alliance have got out a song book containing 86 ditties, set to popular airs, which they sell at their meetings.

The total indebtedness of Brantford is $693,406, and of this sum $332,500 has been paid out in bonuses, and over 86 per cent. of this last sum has been given to railroad companies.

A movement is now on foot to present to Lady Macdonald a life-sized portrait of herself in recognition of the part she has played in Canadian life and politics. Senator Sanford has the matter in charge.

This story is told of Oliver Mowat. One day he found a poor drunken man lying in a pool of mud. "My poor fellow" said Ontario's premier, "let me help you out, don't you see you're all over mud." "Who are you?" rudely asked the drunken man. "Why," said the premier, "I am Oliver Mowat, but who are you?" "I?" answered the man, "I'm all over mud."

Guelph Mercury.—The Ontario Agricultural College is doing a great work this year in advertising the city of Guelph and the county of Wellington as a farming centre, outside of the education and practical knowledge of farm work imparted at the institution. Last week there were 3,940 excursionists visited the farm. There were 480 from East York, 422 from South Simcoe, 634 from North Perth, 450 from Centre Wellington, 1,350 from South Bruce, 117 from North Essex, 300 of the Sons of England from Toronto Junction, and 187 of a Sabbath school picnic from Blenheim and Mount Pleasant. All came by the G. T. R. with the exception of the Sons of England on C. P. R.

Rev. H. T. Crossley, the well known evangelist, writing to the Winnipeg Free Press regarding the year's work of himself and Mr. Hunter, says:—As some people talk censoriously about us getting rich, etc., I might just here say, not for those who talk, for personally I do not believe in gratifying them by noticing them, for people will talk you know; but for those who would be pleased to know the truth, let me state that from all places visited during the past year we received for evangelistic work less than $2,100, each, while for travelling expenses by train and boat we both paid $380, and for board $200. We pay our way as men should, whether in hotel or private house we make our home. I might also state that we have found great joy in contributing to benevolent and religious purposes during the year over $1,300. We endeavor to live and labor and give, in view of that day when the books shall be opened.
