FACTS ABOUT OUR Great Sale of Shoes!

A Shoe Sale with us doesn't mean an offering of heaps of any old factory's refuse of alluringly priced "gone by" styles and "used to be" shapes. We don't conduct our business on that basis. Sometimes conditions enable us to give you our GOOD SHOES at LESS THAN USUAL PRICES. a sale - such is the case now. We want to close out our present stock and get ready for Fall Trade-we want to convert our Shoes into money, even if we have to meet a loss in order to do so. But we don't buy up job lots or ends simply to make a great show of "cheapness." We want you to feel, when you come

ARREST 250 ARMED MEN.

Warsaw Police Busy Filling Jails With Jewish Socialists.

Jewish Socialists.

Warsaw, Aug. 11.—The police were busy yesterday afternoon filling jails with Jewish Socialists. They captured 250 armed with revolvers and daggers in a synagogue on Novoliple street. Fifteen others were arrested by a patrol on Francis Skauska street, after an exchange of shots.

A bomb was discovered in a street yesterday morning, and three policemen were shot. There also were disturbances in the surrounding districts. Gangs of revolutionists, armed with revolvers and bombs, attacked the Government treasuries in the three district towns of Opatow, Lubartow and Wengrow, resulting in a stiff fight with the police, several of whom were killed or wounded. Peasants destroyed the palace of Count Krasinski, at Tykocin, near Byelostok.

Immigration increased.

London, Aug. 11.—(C. A. P.)—The Board of Trade return, issued yesterday, shows that between Dec. 31, 1904, and July 31, 1905, 57,249 persons of British origin emigrated to Canada, an increase of 10,000 over the number of British emigrants to Canada during the corresponding period of last year.

this date to be $650,000,000.

Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 11.—Reimbursement for the expenses sustained in the prosecution of the war and the cession of the Island of Sakhalin constitute the main features of the peace conditions handed by Baron Komura to M. Witte at the conclusion of yesterday morning's session of the plenipotentiaries here. The word "indemnity" is carefully avoided, the term employed being "reimbursement" for the cost of the war. No sum is fixed, the amount being distinctly adjourned for mutual adjustment between the two amount being distinctly adjourned for mutual adjustment between the two countries after the Japanese expendi-ture has been ascertained. These are the two all-important conditions, and thone which the Russian plenipoteniaries finds absolutely unacceptable.

Unacceptable as they are, however, t can be stated that these two principal conditions did not come as a survise to the Russian plenipotentiaries. The friendly fashion in which Baron Komura explained the conditions be-fore handing them to M. Witte, and the avoidance of the use of the word "indemnity" in the presentation of the Japanese bill for the cost of the war ithout fixing a sum leaves the way open for negotiation and constitutes the main hope that a final agreement is possible. Certainly the danger of a sudden rupture, no matter what the ultimate result may be is precluded by resterday's developments.

As Expected.

The other terms are substantially what the world expected, and with one or perhaps two exceptions, could prob ably be entertained as bases for nego tations. They include the following:

The cession of the Russian leases to the Liaotung Peninsula, comprising
Port Arthur and Dalny, the evacuation of the entire Province of Manchuria, the retrocession to China of any privileges Russia may have in the Province, and the recognition by Rus-sia of the principle of the "open door," the cession to Japan of the Chinese Eastern Railway below Harbin, the main line through Northern Manchuria to Vladivostock to remain Russian pro-perty, the recognition of the Japanese protectorate over Corca, the grant of fishing rights to Japan in the waters of the Siberian littoral northward from Vladivostock to the Behring Sea; the relinquishment to Japan of the Russian warships interned in neutral ports, and finally a limitation upon the naval strength of Russia in Far Eastern wat

As a whole the terms are regarded as exceedingly hard by the Russians. addition to the two principal cond dions, which cannot be accepted under M. Witte's instructions, those relating to the limiting of Russia's naval power in the Far East and the granting of shing rights upon the Russian littoral are considered particularly offensive to e amour propre of the country, and such a humiliating character as to inadmissible. The Japanese, on the contrary, as

The Japanese, on the contrary, as Baron Komura announced at the conference yesterday, considered them moderate, contending that they only represent a fair compensation for the expenses of the war and the victories they have achieved on land and sea, their sole purpose being to attain the objects for which they have fought, the spelis claimed being only such as they are legitimately entitled to as the result of their military and naval successe. The Russian plenipoentiaries, as soon as the Japanese terms were in their hands, called in the five expert delegates attached to the mission and spent the whole afternoon in the consideration of the terms.

Cabled to Czar,

Meantime, the conditions had been placed in cipher and cabled to the Russian Emperor with M. Witte's personal recommendations. It is hoped that a reply will be received from the Emperor today, in which case M. Witte expects to have the Russian response ready by Saturday, but it is not unlikely that Saturday being the first aniversary of the birth of the Czarevitch the presentation of the reply will be deferred until Monday. Meantime, the plenipotentiaries will not meet unless deferred until Monday. Meantime, the plenipotentiaries will not meet unless some unexpected necessity for a conference should arise.

The Japanese plenipotentiaries manifest not the slightest annoyance at the prospect of a few days delay. They realize how serious the issue is, and are perfectly willing to give their Russian colleagues ample time for consideration.

Russ Correspondents Not Hopeful. Russ Correspondents Not Hopeful.

The Russian correspondents here are not optimistic as a result of the disclosure of the Japanaese terms. They telegraphed their papers yesterday a pessimistic view of the outlook for peace, taking the position that the Japanese demand as to Saktalin and indemnity were excessive and such as Russia, in the present circumstances, was not forced to yield to.

Czar Knows the Worst.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 11.—Russia is probably now in possession of Japan's terms for ending the war. Long cipher despatches were received late at night by the Foreign Office and the Russian Government is awaiting the morrow before deliberating on and discussing the Japanese Emperor's terms. Whether M. Witte has cabled the terms direct to Emperor Nicholas is not known. The cipher telegrams arrived at the Foreign Office after the departure of the translating secretaries.

asusi, professor of English at the Imperial University of Tokio, in an interview, following a lengthy conversation with M. Sato, who, being spokesman for the Japanese peace mission, said yesterday that Japan's terms, in his opinion, would include the immediate evacuation of Manchuria, the cession of the Island of Sakhalin and of Vladivostock, and an indemnity of $1,000,000,000. The indemnity might be reduced, if peace could be brought about in no other way.

"The Portsmouth conference will end in a treaty of peace," continued the professor. "The conference may be long drawn out, but Russia must in the end accede to the terms of Japan, which has gained an impregnable position and can diotate terms."

San Francisco, Aug. 11.—The Russian cruiser Lena, which has been interned at Mare Island Navy Yard for several months, left there yesterday morning for a trial trip to the lower bay. For some time past the Union Iron Works has been making extensive repairs on her. It is intended to have her in good shape to return to Russia as soon as conditions between that country and Japan permit.

ANNUAL VISIT

Geo. Buskin, of the International Evangelical and Colportage Mission, of Algoma and the Northwest, is making his annual visit to Chatham in behalf of the 22nd year's work of the disseminating through the dis-tricts Biblical literature; 2,700 copies were supplied by the Mission's agency in ten languages, and the journies last year in the work extended to the Pacific coast; $2,200 were the paid expenses on the work, and there is still indebtedness of about $3,000. The depot at 202 King St. E. Toronto, is kept continually open, and Bibles and books are on hand in 25. languages. The donations last year in Chatham in behalf of the work was $21.25, which the missionary grate-fully acknowledges.
