THE ACADIAN WOLFVILLE, N. S., APRIL 6, 1888

Local and Provincial.

PERSONAL.—Mr C. H. Borden returned on Wednesday evening from Boston where he has been spending a week or so.

FULL.—We regret exceedingly that an interesting communication from Rev. T. D. Hart, of Berwick, has been unavoidably crowded out.

ENTERTAINMENT.—The entertainment in the Baptist church to-night promises to be a very pleasant affair. We would advise all who wish to spend a pleasant evening to attend.

LOOK at Rockwell & Co's. Room Paper advertisement in this issue!

THE YARMOUTH.—The S. S. Yarmouth, is making a splendid record this season. She arrived in Boston on Sunday last with over 200 passengers, leaving made the trip in 17 hours.

1 Ton Bright P. R. SUGAR retailing at 7 c-nts. R. PRAT.

IMPROVEMENT.—Mr B. G. Bishop has had a neat platform placed in front of his store, which makes quite an improvement in the appearance of the premises and benefits the sidewalk.

W. & A. R.—Conductor Clarke is taking a holiday of a few weeks which he is spending in the United States. We wish him a pleasant trip. During his absence his train will be in charge of Conductor Herbert.

Don't FORGET the big clearance sale of room paper at Rockwell & Co's this spring.

THE BEAUTIFUL.—Quite a severe snow storm occurred on Monday last, and made the abiding pretty good on Tuesday. It soon vanished, however, before the warm rays of the spring sun, leaving a plentiful supply of mud in its track.

"Diamond N" Molasses, What-Bread and Middlings, just rec'd. R. PRAT.

JERSEYS.—Mr D. Mumford brought to Wolfville this week two fine grade Jersey cows and one thoroughbred. The grades are for Mr J. W. Barr, of Gaspercan, and Mr Geo. Hunter, of Gaspercan; and the thoroughbred (Lady Norton) is for himself.

MOCK TRIAL.—Next Friday evening the students of Acadia College are to hold a mock trial, when the assault and battery case, McCulloch v. Muck, will be tried with all solemnity. It will be open to the public on a small admittance fee, and will no doubt be very amusing.

LECTURE.—We are pleased to be in a position to announce that Rev. W. G. Lane is to deliver his lecture on "A Trip to Sweden" in this town on the third Friday in April. This lecture has been given in Halifax and other towns and is very highly spoken of. Further particulars will be given next week.

MADE FOR SALE.—A good driver, 9 years old. Apply to D. B. Shaw, Wolfville.

FINGER OFF.—One day last week, Mr Aubrey Brown, of this place, while cutting hay with a hay-cutting machine, taken off and another badly cut. The wounded hand was dressed and the severed finger put in its place, and it is now healing as rapidly as can be expected.

SONS OF TEMPERANCE.—The officers of Wolfville Division for the ensuing quarter were installed on Monday evening last and are as follows:— W. P.—W. S. Wallace, R. S.—Miss Sarah Rand, A. B.—C. W. Bishop, F. S.—Miss Ella Caldwell, T. S.—John Jones, Treas.—G. H. Patricquin, Chap.—E. E. Locke, Comd.—Norman Patterson, A. C.—Miss Ella Patricquin, I. S.—George Hamilton, O. S.—T. R. Wallace, P. W. P.—W. H. Evans.

You bet it will pay every time to buy Room Paper at Rockwell & Co's. They are actually selling papers away below cost.

ANOTHER IMPROVEMENT.—Mr J. M. Shaw has had his rooms newly fitted up, and they now present a very pretty appearance. The walls have been papered in the most approved style, and the rooms have been ornamented to correspond. We doubt if a prettier or more convenient suite of half-dressing rooms can be found in the Province. Mr Shaw certainly deserves a great deal of credit for the manner in which he has fitted up his establishment, and we hope he will be liberally patronized. A good barber is an addition to any town, and such is friend Shaw in every respect.

TRUNKS, VALISES, CLUB BAGS, Latest Styles and Lowest Prices FOR ONE WEEK ONLY, COMMENCING MARCH 29TH AND CLOSING APRIL 4TH. Now is your time to save money. O. D. HARRIS, Glasgow House, Wolfville. March 30th, 1887.

BERWICK TIMES. NEWS, NOTES, JOTTINGS, ETC. Andrew, of the Western Emporium, has now to hand a large portion of his Spring Stock. He has made special preparations for a large trade this coming season. Berwick, March 30th.

The Rev. D. Savage and Band are still in Berwick. Meetings are held afternoons and evenings. Religious interest is widening and deepening, and reaching out into the other churches and congregations. In the meetings we attended Mr Savage was on his feet during the whole service and was the central wheel and motive power in every address, song and prayer, and in his zeal every part of him moved and vibrated as if hung on ten thousand springs. He sets at naught all the stereotyped and conventional forms of the prayer and social meetings, and sometimes the conventional proprieties and graces of the English language; but with all his peculiarities, as an earnest, true-hearted and unselfish man we wish him everywhere God's speed in his evangelistic work. His band workers, by one of the members of the Berwick brass band on the bugle, not only in novelty but in religious inspiration give to the meetings one of their chief attractions and open the hearts of many to the reception of religious truth.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES, led by Rev. D. Savage and his singers, Misses Baird, grow in interest. The church is generally fairly filled, and sometimes crowded. The spirit of the Lord rests upon the people. Believers are evidently growing in grace. Seekers who have been forward for prayer are bearing testimony to the peace they now enjoy through Christ the Saviour. We are glad to notice that members of several churches are sympathizing in the movement and are sympathizing in the movement and are sympathizing in the movement.

According to announcement, the ladies of Christ Church held their fancy sale and tea on Tuesday evening. Notwithstanding the sloppy condition of the roads, and the counter attraction of meetings held after tea, we understand some fifty dollars was realized. The ladies of the sewing circle desire to tender their sincere thanks to the Berwick brass band for a choice programme of music rendered during the evening gratuitously; their thanks are also due to Mr. Joseph Ellis for use of Hall, given free of charge; also to Mr F. A. Clarke for use of lumber.

Died, at Berwick, on the 27th ult, the infant daughter of Mr and Mrs J. W. Black, five months old, of inflammation of the lungs. Mr B. has been absent for several months in Ontario, and is not able to come home on account of illness. In their pecuniary trying affliction the family have the deep and wide-spread sympathy of the community.

Miss Sarah L. Hart left Victoria in the steamer Barbara Boscowitz at 12 p. m., 27th Feb, and arrived at her destination, Fort Simpson, on the afternoon of March 3rd, in good health. We hope to hear more of her missions as the months pass.

The steam mill is at work again, after being shut down a week for repairs. The enterprising owners have just sold their old shingle machine to S. P. Chute, Esq., and put in one of John I. Lloyd's new machines with improved bolt feeder.

Mr C. E. Sanford has recently loaded about 25 cars with potatoes, and estimates that there will be about 15 more to load at Berwick. Choice early roses, 55c; Burbanks, 50c; and others at 40c.

METHODIST APPOINTMENTS.—For Sabbath, 8th April.—Preaching at Berwick at 11 a. m.; at Westport, 3 p. m.; at Harborville 7 p. m. T. D. HART, Pastor.

There is a vessel loading with potatoes at Harborville and another at Black Rock. Find it difficult at both places to get a load.

Get your furniture, and pictures framed at Parker's new furniture rooms, Berwick. Choice picture-moulding in stock.

Capt. Charles McBride has gone to Margareville to take charge of the schr Modena, for Boston.

CHRIST CHURCH (Anglican).—Service next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. T. E. GWILLIAM, Incumbent.

Mrs John Shalmer, of Williamston, is on a visit to her old home and friends in Berwick.

The Baptist church of Berwick has commenced holding extra evening services. Highest prices for EGGS, cash or trade, at PRAT'S.
