HONEST, INDEPENDENT, FEARLESS .- DEVOTED TO LOCAL AND GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

Vol. X1.

WOLFVILLE, KING'S CO., N. S., FRIDAY, MAY 13, 1892.

No. 37.

The Acadian. Published on FRIDAY at the office

WOLFVILLE, KINGS CO., N. S.

SI.00 Per Annum. (IN ADVANCE.)

CLUBS of five in advance $4 00. Local advertising at ten cents per line for every insertion, unless by special arrangement for standing notices. Hates for sanding notices. Hates for sanding advertisement's will be made known on application to the effice, and payment on transless advertising must be guaranteed by some responsible party, prior to its insertion.

party prior to its insertion.

The AGAGIAN JOS DEPARTMENT is constantly receiving new type and material, and will continue to guarantee satisfaction on all work turned out.

Newsy communications from all parts of the county, or articles upon the topics of the day are cordially solicited. The name of the party writing for the AGAGIAN must invariably accompany the communication. must invariably accompany the communication, although the same may be written over a ficticious signature.

a noticious signature.
Address all comunications to DAVISON BROS.,
Editors & Proprietors,
Wolfville, N 8

he has subscitted or or the payment.

2. If a porson orders his paper discontinued be noted pay up all arrearages, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and collect the whole payment is taken from sount, whether the paper is office or not. the office or not.

3. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the Post Office, or removing and leaving them uncalled for is prima/seis syldom of intentional fraud.

POST OFFICE, WOLFVILLE.

Grynes Houss, S A. M ve S 30 r M. Malls remade up as follows; For Hallfax and Windsor close at 7 00 m.

Express cast close at 10.20 s. m.
Express cast close at 4 30 p.m.
Kentville close at 7 00 p.m.
Ggo. V. Rang, Post Master

PROPLE'S BANK OF HALIFAX.

Open from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. Closes on Saturday at 1 p. m. G. W. Monso, Agent.

Churches.

BAPTIST CHURCH-Roy T A Higgins BAPTINT ORDITORIL - ROY TA FINGUIS, Fastor-Brytions i Sunday, preaching at 11 a m and 7 p m; Sunday School at 2 30 p m Haif hour prayer meeting after evening service avery Sunday. Prayer meeting on Tou-slay and Wednesday evenings at 7 30.
Feate free; all are welcome. Strangers will be cared for by Colar W ROSGOS,
A DEW BARSS

Ushers

DENS!

DILY

HBALD.

STRATE,

CER.

T, ETC.

PRESHYTERIAN CHURCH—Rev. R
D Ross, Pastor—Service every Sabbath at 3 00 p. m. Sabbath School at 2 p. m.
Prayer Mosting on bubbath at 7 p. m. and Wortnesday at 7,30 p. m. Strangers always walcome.

METHODIST CHURCH—Rev. Cranswhick Jost, A. M., Pastor; Rev. W. R.
Furner, Assistant Pastor; Horton and Wolfville Preaching on Sabisath at 11 a.
mand J. p.m. Sabisath School at 9 30 a.m.
Gractwich and Avonports services at 5 p.m.
Prayer Meeting at Wolfville on Thursday at 7 30 p.m.; at Horton on Priday at 7 30 p.m. Strangers welcome at all the services.
TARRIES, O. D.—General Dry Goods

By JOHN'S CHURCH-Service ever Br JOHN'S CHURCH -Bervice every Bunday afternoon at 3, except the first Sunday in the month, when there will be Morning Prayer with Celebration of the Hoty Communion at 11. IBAAC BROCK, D. D., Rector of Horton,

By FRANCIS (R. C.).—Rev T M Daly F. F.—Mass 11 00 a m the last Sunday o Bach month.

87. GEORGE'S LODGE, A. F. & A. M., meets at their Hall on the second Friday of each month at 7½ o'clock p. m. J. W. Galdwell, Secretary.

WOLFVILLE DIVISION S. of T. meets

CRYSTAL Band of Hope meets in the THOUSANDS IN REWARDS.

and in this advertisement spells the same as Verward! This is a rare opportunity to an and blies, every Pather and Son, to some PURIFY YOUR BLOOD with SKODA'S DISCOVERY.

Skoda Victorious Palpitation of the Heart, Kidney an Liver Trouble, Deathly Faintness and Loss of Appetite CUREDII

THE FOLLOWING LETTER PROVE HE WONDERFUL MEDICINAL POWER F THE GREAT GERMAN-AMERICAL EMEDY. THE NAME OF REV. H ILLS (THAN WHOM THERE IS NO BY ER KNOWN MAN IN THE MINISTRY) ELL, KNOWN IN THOUSANDS DUNKHOLDS IN THE PINE TR

MOUREMOLDS IN THE PINE TREE BTATE.
GENTS:—I am now 57 years old, and for over 10 years I have been afflicted with weak Bitchneys so leady at times that I could not reast mights. I could get no position that would be comfortable my back was so lefte.

My Liver also became affected, causmy Liver also became affected, causmy Liver also became affected, caushad a Buti Hend on continually accompanied by two years I have been greatly n of THAN the Bearing and in tracted meetings it would become one provides the two Course of SKODA'.

Discovery and LITTLE TABLET. you kindly sent me, and through the bless perfect. You kills have COLD set feel before for 20 perfect Priornally yours. Tracy Mills, Carleton Co., N. H. MILLS.

SKODA DISCOVERY CO., Wolfvills, N.S.

DIRECTORY

-OF THE-Business Firms of WOLFVILLE

The undermentioned firms will use

HARRIS, O. D.—General Dry Goods Clothing and Gents' Furnishings. HERBIN, J. F .- Watch Maker and PATRIQUIN, C. A.—Manufacturer of all kinds of Carriage, and Team Harness.

Harness,

POCKWELL & CO.—Book sellers, Picture Framers, and deslers in Pianos, Organs, and Bewing Machines.

RAND, G. V.-Drugs, and Faney STEEF, S. R.—Importer and dealer Jin General Hardware, Stoves, and Tin-ware. Agents for Frost & Wood's Plows SHAW J. M.—Barber and Tolse Soniat.

WALLACE, G. H.-Wholesale and WITTER, BURPEE, Importer and dealer in Dry Goods, Millinery, Ready-made Clothing, and Genta' Fur-plablings.

POETRY. Only a Woman.

Only a woman, shivering and old,
The prey of the winds and the pr
the cold!
Checks that are shrunken,
Fyes that are sunken,
Lips that were never o'er bold,
Only a woman, forsaken and poor,
Asking for alms at the bronze church o

Faster and faster;
The great bell ceases its toll.
Fain would she enter, but not for the

Only a womas, waiting alone,
Leily cold on ice cold stone.
What do they care for her—
Gliving not bread but a stone?
Under rich laces their haughty hes beat, Mocking the woes of their kin in street.

Only a woman ! In the old days Hope caroled to her happiest lays, Some body missed her, Somebody crowned her with praise, Somebody faced out the battle of life, Strong for her sake who was mother and Somebody lies with a tress of her hair Light on his heart where the death sha-dows are, Somebody waits for her, Opening the gates for her, Civing delight for despair. Only a woman—never no more! She is dead in snow at the bronze church door.

SELECT STORY

stone steps of a handsome house in when you we will town. She has searcely touched the arm of her footman, and vouchsefed no glance at the passer-by. Drawn aside from the bettom of the steps, however, half coursing notice, a slight, unpretending figure attracts a momentary attention.

Thus this poor but pions mother entracts a momentary attention.

Visitor in with his mistres, with perfect important would have the soul improve and bless. Her let thenceforth was not meagre and bare if you have not forgotten, child?

If Faith had thoughs the lady bean difful on the previous day, she thought the step bean difful on the previous day, she thought the still issue so now, in a graceful attitude on a low feuteuil, in the most becoming of demi-toilettes.

Whatever had come to her, would not not not forgotten, child?

If Faith had thoughs the lady bean difful on the previous day, she thought her still issue so now, in a graceful attitude on a low feuteuil, in the most becoming of demi-toilettes.

Thus this poor but pions mother entitude on a low feuteuil, in the most becoming of demi-toilettes.

Whatever had come to her, would not not not forgotten, child?

If Faith had thoughs the lady bean difful on the previous day, she thought the need for support, but felt strong of the need for support is not not not not need to her or need to support the need for support is not need to her or need to here.

BORDEN, CHARLES H.—Carriages sun had never shone on them in Lonshulle sun between the same streets. A sudden rememberance could procure; but this was more on very poor?"

The dark cy DAVISON, J. B.—Justice of the Peace, at them with a tender gleam in her blue Yet again and again she was taught ed fully into the blue ones bent on her.

OAVISON, J. B.—Justice of the Peace, at them with a tender gleam in her blue Yet again and again she was taught ed fully into the blue ones bent on her.

OAVISON, J. B.—Justice of the Peace, as she passes.

try home; who had wandered farther diving her brown hand into the recesses of her pocket, An imperious gesture waves aside the of her pocket,

"She's a real angel !" she murmurs Meanwhile the Countries of Noelthorne seeks the rich recesses of her boudoir, feeling "desperately mortal." Within an hour the girl was far away from that rich quarter, in a miserable locality, beside a frail and fading weman. "Mother, I saw such a beautiful lady to-day. The was a real angel! my dear," replied the faded woman with a sickly smile, you would not say that. And she gave no a whole shilling for a penny bunch," "By mistake? I bope you went after grandest house, and she told me to bring her another to morrow, and I may see her again."

The sentences tumbled out breathers, but the faded woman was not averaged by the intelligence as her daughter thought she ought to have been. Mrs Hailyard had learned to look upon such insidence with suspicion. She began to institute a few inquiries, and apparently, respect to the hady's been she sould produce upon the morrow, and go straight with them, at the hour appointed, to the lady's house.

"Yes, my lady."

enough to be noticable. That was one reason; for the other—my lady's heart was empty!

"Trevor, do you know a flower girl will not cost me anything. Your methors will not look, who are comfort to be good we muse deny self. I think of myself always, and most. There, that is my true nature, and very few know it. It is a comfort to speak out for once. An!, I have never noticed her."

"Tovor, do you know a flower girl will not cost me anything. Your methors would tell you, to be good we muse deny self. I think of myself always, and most. There, that is my true nature, and very few know it. It is a comfort to speak out for once. An!, I have never noticed her."

"To lod her to bring me another bunch apparently, respect to speak out for once. An!, I shall find means to let you know."

The sentences tumbled out breather was empty!

"Trevor, do you know a flower girl will not cost me anything. Your methors with a the lady seemsty!

"Tovor, do you know a flower girl will not cost me anything. Your methors with a step you to be good we muse deny self. I think of myself always, and most. There, that is my true nature, and very few know it. It is a comfort to speak out for once. An!, Free that is my true nature, and very few know it. It is a comfort to speak out for once. An!, Free that is my true nature, and were for though self. I think of myself always, and most. There, that is my true nature, and were for it will not ost me anything. Your methoders with a such self. It think of myself always, and most. There, that is not Swingeth wide open the bronze church appointed, to the lady's house.

"Yes, my lady."

My lady was certainly eccentric, but Faith." "Yes, mother " lady; for, mother, in spite of her fine arrived while the Countess was in the spin. There came a moment when clothes, and the tall footman and hand Park. Her presence was a general re- Lady Noelthorne held her world in her some house, I thought her eyes were lief, and her lively sallies made the ensad. Perhaps the flowers reminded her to tainment go off well. My lady was That soft ball of pink fl-sh, fine can as I turned away."

"Yes, mother, and some look corry, and many fusage and many weary, and many fusage and many weary, and many fusage and many fu tracts a momentary attention.

It is that of a girl of about fifteen, standing perfectly still but with a pown standing perfectly still but with a pown one—pure and good and true amid the many dangers by which she was surfus pleading is in the large dark wounded. In their deep poverty and almond-shaped eyes. Her comploxion is sallow, but her features are regular trayed into absolute meanners and lying. She was no longer conscious of the need for support, but felt strong on the many dangers by which she was surfus almond-shaped eyes. Her comploxion is sallow, but her features are regular trayed into absolute meanners and lying. She would have died rather than have acted a falsehood. Learning practice.

It is that of a girl of about fifteen, the poor but pious mother end to keep how, it is graceful at titude on a low findeuit, in the most decented to keep how, it is graceful at titude on a low findeuit, in the most decented to keep how, it is graceful at titude on a low findeuit, in the most of the need for support, but felt strong to protect. Whatever had come to her, be shadow should fall on the path of her child—her only asked:

A slight expression of contempt curls ed the lip of the questioner. Self-in terest was the ruling motive of the world. But she only asked:

One brown hand holds out a bunch of the complexion of the need for support, but felt strong to protect. Whatever had come to her, lady, replied the girl; "you gave me a shilling."

A slight expression of contempt curls ed the lip of the questioner. Self-in terest was the ruling motive of the world. But she only asked:

For Dyapopela.

A. Bellanger, Proper, Stove Pous lioness she could fight for the right of her young—her beautiful—her first born—her baby boy!

Whatever had come to her with a give mean of the need for support, but felt strong to freedet. Whatever had come to her.

A slight expression of contempt curls ed the lip of the questioner. Self-in terest was the ruling motive of the world. But she only asked:

"In a shilling on the large of arguerites.

Very fresh they are; as if a burning ally from its lack the value of money.

eyes, as she passes.

A momentary recollection;—a broad, ing." "The blessing of the Lerd, it open field, a shady lane, a boy and girl who have wandered far from their countries." with it."

A momentary recollection;—a broad, ing." "The blessing of the Lerd, it open field, a shady lane, a boy and girl with it."

We are very poor," she said, aloud, with it."

"mother and I I would not tell a lie." Faith's father, a merchant scaman my lady, for the whole world, for moth-The flower-girl is encouraged.

Of Portuguese extraction, in the service or says it is a sin."

Of a famous importer, was drowned at

"Where is your fat

"Please buy, my lady," she entreats; sea. He had an honest same, which "Dead, my lady."

suppressing the usual addition—'Only was the only heritage he could leave one penny," which she feels would be his child. When the girl was fore-d "Change, my lady," says the girl, er's memory, while her mother was a "O, lady, you know; the good Lord variable, capricious, excitable, where wrong, or be led aside from truth. this hour to morrow, and you shall have a wonderful supply of pravisions, with > guerites, and by a strange whim she lie?"

> bade the maid place a few in her hair.
> and give her too or three for the bosom > of hier dress. Rarer and more fragrant "N flowers were grouped in delicate vases of Sevres china or Venetian glass, but that moment the prayer which the poor

"By mistake? I bope you went after How was it that she awakened an in-terest in the Counters's mind? She was pratty certainly; with a soft, dark, gave it on purpose, and she lives in the possive prettiness, that was uncommon and should them."

"He certainly has not a vigorous constitution," was the grave rejoinder. "The mether must have been of a nervegave it on purpose, and she lives in the possive prettiness, that was uncommon lady interrupted; grandest house, and she told me to bring enough to be noticable. That was one it is a privilege of the great so to be. Lord Noelthorne had a few guests,

"And always pray about everything." chiefly men. A niceo of his, a young we take it. To some it spreads itself "I do, mother, as you bade me. I widow, with enough wit to be consider around the limits of the habitable globe, said a little prayer for the beautiful ed brilliant by her acquaintances, had to others dwarfs itself into the smallest

"A great deal lady." "Child, answer me truly. Are you

"Where is your father ?"

"Was he a good man?" "A very good man, lady, . He has

"Are you trying to be good too ?" "Yes, lady; but mother says I can't

The Countess of Noelthern

"No, lady, by God's mercy."

"Or pretend to be what you are not."
"No lady."

"Nay, child, spare your thanks. It

CHAPTER V. THE world is what we make it or as of some one who died or went away. I always gracious to her lord's guests, beie, and rich lace was herasif, and more said, 'God help her if she is in trouble !' and had sufficient regard, to his wishes than herasif. It was the developments in everything to lead to her being con- almost the completion, of her life. Al "Do you always observe those you sidered a pattern wife. She was more the tenderness, the pent-up unsati-field most in the street as closely. Faith?" generally looked upon however, as a yearnings of her woman's nature went mother's face in our own poor room at Lady Noeltborne was at home next world!" "The daylight and sun" had when menths had passed on without day when Faith Hailyard called. To grown painful to her. But here sud whildish recognition or observation. "I wish you had a better life, my child; Q, I wish you had a better life it directed to show the girl into the morn was the fine meal, which, being cast was the cautious reply. "Some infants

The Shadow of Nobility.

CHAPTER 1V.

A Lady has just descended from her carriage, and is passing up the broad stone steps of a handsome house in town. She has scarcely town. The scarce of the show the girl into the morn ing room where the Countess was scattered to show the girl into the morn ing room where the Countess was scattered to show the girl into the morn ing room where the Countess was scattered to show the girl into the morn ing room where the Countess was scattered to show the girl into the morn ing room where the Countess was scattered to show the girl into the morn into the treubled pool, would prove for the bealing of the waters.

Her part on life's stage had hitherte been a sad one, but now a rainbow of promise encircled it round. Though a portion of her very being, there was an object of interest outside of self. She had set her heart upcome and bless. Her lot would not have lived in vain could she this soul improve and bless. Her lot ordship's very features, 'said the nurse "He is like my father," replied the Countess decidedly. "Well now, my lady, he is like your adyship's father; particular about the gustus Crichton.

gustus Crichten.

To tend and watch over her baby became the all-absorbing occupation of the Countess's days. He was searcely one moment absent from her mind. No one moment absent from her mind. No one moment absent from her mind. No of August Flower, and now consider myself a well man. I slucerely be flower-girl; sh, even forgot her altogether. I have been described by the flower-girl; sh, even forgot her altogether. I have been described by the flower of the f This engressing affection wrought at different times unfavourably on her manner to her husband. It made her truly God-fearing woman. It was a loved us and died for us," He only is before she had been forbearing. If he panoply in which she could scarcely go "the Way." admired the child, she was pleased and The isdy's gift of a shilling was like the frog. It had swelled out into extraordinary dimensions.

The wou poor, child?"

"Yery poor my lady."

"Your name, child?" she inquired.

"Your name, child?" she inquired. gentle; but if there was not suffici another shilling."

She passes in without further notice that to morrow should be "as that day, and more abundant."

They blessed God, ate and drank, and she was little more, gases after in a rapture of samiration.

At the same time the Countess of guesse for Faith, lady."

"Faith Hailyard."

"Was your father an Englishman?"

"Yes, my lady, but his father came ship's dull brain that the child would spoil the mother was me his "little fie. Fo is the Portus policy of guesse for Faith, lady."

The boy was beautiful there was no server to pierce his lord. They blessed God, ate and drank, and me his "little fie. Fo is the Portus policy of guesse for Faith, lady."

The boy was beautiful there was no server to pierce his lord. The idea began even to pierce his lo

At the same time the Countess of Noelthorne was in her dressing room, making her dinner toilet. Heside her on the table was the bouquet of martures were regular and refined ; in truth, exactly like his maternal grandfather's, The eyes were large, full, and dark, Though the mother would not admit it. From the proud lady's heart arose at even to herself, his disposition was cortainly irritable, and this sometimes cast they did not attract my lady's fancy, flower-girl had breathed for her in the a peevish shade over the face which ther taste was perfect, har will supreme. Street the day before,—"God help me!" would otherwise have seemed angelie. There was no questioning either. The But nothing of this appeared at the marguerites were the thing and no time. Only Fe was dismissed with the quired the family physician one day.

That it is not wise to experiment with cheap compounds purporting to be blood-purifiers, but which have no real modicinal value. To make use of any other than the old standard AYER'S Sarsaparilla—the Superior Blood-purifier—is simply to invite less of time, money and health. If you are allieted with Southus, Catarria, Rheumatism, Dyspepala, Eczema, Running Sores, Tumors, or any other blood disease, be assured that

It Pays to Use AYER'S Sarsaparilla, and AYER'S only. AYER'S Sarsaparilla can always be depended upon. It does not vary. It is always the same in quality, quantity, and effect. It is superior in combination, propertion, appearance, and in all that goes to build up the system weakened by disease and pain. It searches out all impurities in the blood and expels them by the natural channels.*

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer &Co., Lowell, Mass, Bold by all Druggists, Price $1, all bottles Cures others, will cure you very good remedy. Ed. Bergeron, General Dealer, Lauzon, Levis, Quebec, writes: "I have used August Plower with the best possible results for Dyspepsia."

C. A. Barrington, Engineer and pandid.

"We are very poor," she said, aloud, that the infant Lord Gosselin was the decomplete cure in my case. It act-

G. G. GREEN, Sole Manufacturer, Woodbury, New Jersey, U. S. A.

$3,500 IN REWARDS The Canadian Agriculturist's Great Half

There was no questioning either. The margueries were the thing and no others.

With a sight of these common favourites of mother sarth came a recollection of the girl who had sold them.

She should receive from him a shilling. The girl's face grew rapturous at the washing that the same a recollection of the girl who had sold them.

The girl's face grew rapturous at the washing the cries for, too."

Well, Sir, I should say he was, Sir,' with failure greatest that if she handed in a bunch of flowers or that if she handed in a bunch of flowers that if she handed in a bunch of flowers or that if she handed in a bunch of flowers that if she handed in a bunch of flowers or that if she handed in a bunch of flowers that if she handed in a bunch of flowers that if she handed in a bunch of flowers or that if she handed in a bunch of flowers that it she handed in a bunch of flowers that it she handed in a bunch of flowers that it she handed in a bunch of flowers that it she handed in a bunch of flowers that it she handed in a bunch of flowers that it she handed in a bunch of flowers that it she ha

ONT.