Throat Irritation

Speakers and singers are especially annoyed by throat irritation and coughing, often to such an extent as to spoil the effectiveness of their appearance in public.

More particularly in the country, where long drives in stormy weather and the sudden change of temperature on entering warm, stuffy buildings bring on dry throat, irritation and coughing.

A sip of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine brings the greatest relief imaginable under these circumstances, and in wonderfully short time, it clears the throat and air passages, and by coating the mucous membrane protects it against further irritation.

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine

You not only obtain the temporary relief which enables you the free use of the voice in comfort, but also prevent the development of a cold or serious lung trouble.

It is on the recommendation of this medicine from one person to another, during a long period of years that it has attained such wonderful popularity, and has such enormous sales.

Its reputation is so great as to lead to many imitations being put on the market, some even using the name Linseed and Turpentine. But imitations almost always disappoint. You can be sure of the genuine by seeing the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., the famous Receipt Book author, on the bottle you buy.

Children are Scarce Here. Boston, Jan. 23.—More than three-fourths of the Back Bay families are childless, while the children of the remainder are mostly beyond the age of 15.

The investigation reported that of 227 families questioned 199 had no children, and that there were 372 children of the remaining 23 homes, or a proportion of over two children to each family.

Patrons (to very slow waiter)—'Bring me some salad, please. And your might just send me a post card now and then while you're away.'

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA. When a baby has a fever giving wedding presents he can console himself with the thought that it is better to give than to receive.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA. A gang of twenty men from the Belfast yard made the voyage in order to put in the last touches on the way, this morning.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA. The Pastors, while intended for service between New York and Panama, was sent to Boston and in order that the chief officers of the company and the public here might get the first view of her.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA. 'Prove to me,' says Mrs. Oliphant, 'that you can control yourself, and I'll say you're an educated man; and without this all other education is good for next to nothing.'

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA. Many a man has lost a good position, has sacrificed the opportunity of a lifetime in a fit of bad temper.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA. I have seen people in the grip of passion or anger act more like demons than human beings. I recall one man, who, when possessed by one of these terrible fits of anger, would smash everything he could lay his hands on, and pour a volley of the vilest abuse upon any one who got in his way.

Suppose. Suppose you keep a diary of the hateful things you say and the business deals you're doing in the turmoil of the day.

S. S. Pastores in Boston. Nobby welcome for Commodore Henshaw and his new steel steamer.

Self Control. 'Prove to me,' says Mrs. Oliphant, 'that you can control yourself, and I'll say you're an educated man; and without this all other education is good for next to nothing.'

Acute Pains in the Back. CAUSED BY LUMBAGO, A FORM OF MUSCULAR RHEUMATISM.

Nothing too mean or contemptible for him to say. He calls them all sorts of names. He drives his employees away from him. It is almost impossible for him to keep in his employ anyone with any spirit or ability.

Acute Pains in the Back. I know several old men whose whole careers have been crippled by their hot tempers. They could not refrain from giving people with whom they had differences a piece of their mind.

Ladies! WHICH appeals to you more? A truth backed by a bond of good faith, or a mere claim? Judge this: REGAL Flour yields the best quality and the utmost quantity of bread per barrel of any flour in the world.
