HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY, MONDAY, February 13.

HOUSE in COMMITTEE on the ADDRESS in reply to His EXCELLENCY'S SPEECH at the opening of the Mr. WIGHTMAN in the Chair.

Mr. Bezz. — The abuse of power, on the part of the present Government, has dopbless hern very great, in a variety of cases; but, in nothing has it been more conspicuous, than in their diaminate and appointments of Read Commissioners. They had actually—and for no other parpose than the promotion of their own party interests—diamissed some of the very best qualified mens, and appoint-ed, in their stead, some of the most incapable. They had, for iustance, diamissed Mr. David Higgins and Mr. Jaremish Simpson, two of the very best Road Commissioners there had ever been in the Colony. And who had they appointed in their stead—and in the stead of other diamissed Commissioners of similar qualifications? Men, in many instances the most unsuitable : and some of whom were positively, as Commissioners, a disgrace to the Colony. One in particular of those to whom he alluded, had almost altogether neglected the most essential parts of ha duty ; and, by his neglect and insolence of behavioar-riding in haste through a settlement, and keeping the people trotting after him, instead of discharg-ing his duties amongst them with due considera-tion and docent civility.—Alt as provoked them, that they were determined to bring his misconduct in disculous in the Government to attempt to take credit to themselves for the reduction of the Public Debt. If we look back for about fifteen years before they came into office, we shall find that, with a small reveaue, expensive public buildings. All that had been done with about half the present amount of revenue; and, here inside these crains upon it, just as the public buildings were finished, bad crops ensued, and, for the relief of the distress-ed population, and to avert famine, in 1884 and 1849, £4000 or £5000 were issued out of the Treasury. Then, agin, it cught to be remember d that, in 1850, the supplies were stopped, and the revenue kept in the public fairs : so, neither a supon it, just as the public builtings vere finished, bad to the active year's rowens. Famine had disposered proceeded thes : I stempted, a few minutes as one of the most evasive of the real question at issue, that I have ever known to be submit-ted in the Assembly. It would not, indeed, be too much to ary that It contains a deliberate statement, as a fact, of what is not a fact. The original document states, in language suf-ficiently clear, that the object of the Requis-tionists was the excluding of makride Officers from the Assembly. But what does this pro-posed amendment ary is may, "I twas not their intention to lead His Encoloney into an admission that, from the Departmental System, oville and arisen, demanding an immediate change, until the principles involved in that question should have received the fullest dis-cussion in the House of Assembly." Is not the assembly in the assembly is and a baurd. As His Excellency justly conclu-ded, had he acceded to the request of the Re-quisitionists, his doing so would have been deemed a positive admission that will, requi-ring an immediate change, had arisen from the working of the Departmental System. The declared object of the Requisitionists was the exclusion, by enactment, of aslaried officers from the Assembly: and, had the Legislature been summoned, as they had requested it might be opartmental System. The declared object of the Requisitionists are to be believed, in what they have asid of them-selves, they were fully convinced that's long as that system should continue, the Assembly could not possibly escape being corrupted by its inflance: and that it was, therefore, their daty as specify as possible. To this determination, whether real or protended, it is now, however, quite orident they have an indication to athere; and asither, it is my opinion, would they have a dereved to it had His Excellency, in compli-ance with their Requisition, afforded them an erriter opportunity of giving it effect. The truth is, that they who had the chief hand in gotting up that Kequisition, having found that be outdo to reverow the revent that a sthey could not overcome the that, by an adherence to their intention, with respect to the Departmental System, as intim-ted by their Requisition, and to the declara-tions, with reference to that System, made by obscious, they would completely defeat their over each of them, before and at the late of their inside the second management of the second feel their inside the second management of the part of the second second management of the second feel their inside the second management of the part of the second the second management of the part of the second the second management of the feel their inside the second management of the part of the second the second second management for the indignation to which they cannot but indignation of the second second second second power, as no doubt they will, they must em-pare along with it, the Departmental System, against which they have to loadly declaimed; and to abolish which they have no chance of the second second second second second second power, as no doubt they will, they must em-pare along with it excellence authority : will do a fort exceed the second second second power will they think, enable them to subret the will, they think, enable them to subret the will convex themselves to than instruction of the will they think, enable them to subret the system, their proceedings will cover them with diagrace. their ability. Their influence, however, was prov-ed, by the result of the contest, to have been but small. The hon. member for the Third District of Prince County (Hon Mr. Lord) had asserted that no missapplication of public money could be proved against ine Government. What was the feed given to the American naval officers, last summer, at the public expense, but a missapplica-tion of public money? and a few more missapplica-tions of the people's money would, perhaps, also be brought to light before long. Hon, Mr. Lono.—The display made by the hon, member (Mr. Beer) in his maiden speech, was rather an unfortunate one; for a part of it was but a dry repetition of facts, which had been previously adverted to by two or three hon.

was but a dry reputition of facts, which had been previously adverted to by two or three hon. members: and the rest of it was made up of feeble accessions against the Government, which, frivo-lous as they were, had not even the weight which truth generally imparts, even to triffes. No Road Commissioners at all were dismissed by the Government; but under a new Act, by which the old system was abolished, thirty Commissioners were appointed, at a salary of £10 a year each. Mr. Moxroomer.—Will the hon, member say that Mr. Higgins and Mr. Simpson were ast dismissed?

say that Mr. Higgins and Mr. Simpson were act dismissed? Hon. Mr. Lozo.—They were not dismissed; but hey cessed to be Commissioners, when the old they cessed to be Commissioners, when the old the expired, and the new one came into oper-ation. Had we, however, shown less favor than we did, to those officials whom we knew to be attached to the interests of the ald Tory party, and difficult the interests of the ald Tory party, and difficult the interests of the ald Tory party, and difficult the interests of the ald Tory party, and difficult the interests of the ald Tory party, and difficult the been in a majority in this Hoose. Our downfall has been occasioned by nothing but our own implacent forburrance and generosity i we most awaisely nourished a Tory faction, and they influence which they derived from us to accomp-lish our overthrow. Hon. Mr. Wamans.—Leaving squabbles un-noticed, i will endeavor to ropily to some of the amondment of the hon, and learned member for Charlottetown to the 2d paragraph of the Address The hon. member having read the amondmenty
