TALENTED PLAYER IS PRETTY SEENA OWEN

Seena Owen, who plays the leading role of Ruth Fellows in "Breed of Men," William S. Hart's newest Artcraft picture of the far West, which will be displayed at the Griffin Theatre Friday and Saturday, is one of the most accomplished as well as attractive of screen actresses.

Miss Owen was born in Spokane, Wash., and educated there and in Copenhagen, Denmark. She worked for a brief period in stock upon the legitimate stage and then entered the silent drama. She appeared with various leading film concerns and has always given a good account of herself.

The charm of her ingenuous manner and her consummate artistry places her in the preferred lists of leading women. Her role in "Mr. Hart's new picture is an extremely effective one and fully as attractive as the part she played in "Branding Broadway," his previous Artcraft offering.

FEW CENTS DESTROYS YOUR DANDRUFF AND STOPS FALLING HAIR

Save your hair! Make it thick, wavy and beautiful—try this!

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance, an incomparable gloss and softness; but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.

The Sankey Coal Commission has resumed its session in London, and will take up the question of nationalizing the mines.

Responding to the appeal of their employees London's dry goods, grocery and jewelry merchants are expected to adopt six o'clock closing on Saturday evenings in the immediate future.

Hostmaster Boehnen, of Kitchener, who will retire from the position on May 1st, was presented with an address and a Masonic signet ring by the clerks and letter-carriers.

At Griffin's, April 24, 25 and 26.

FASHIONS IN BRIEF

The new fur coats are circular. Cord belts of gold are being worn. Evening wraps still blouse at the back.

The oval necks appear on tiny girls' party frocks.

A graceful negligee of peach blossom satin has an odd silk-tasseled hood.

A gown of mauve tulle is ornamented by a large orange rose at the girdle.

A perfect gown for a woman in the thirties is of gold cloth, veiled with black net.

Black tulle is often worn over gold lace, making a simple but excellent evening gown.

The long-waisted bodice of black jet starts many a frock of black velvet on its happy way.

A most beautiful cape is of sapphire-blue satin banded deeply with old-blue broadcloth.

Handkerchief linen frocks for morning wear in the South have nothing but hemstitching for decoration.

A travelling costume of green velours has a shawl collar of monkey fur and a silver-buckled leather belt.

There are 99 beet root sugar factories in the U. S., and the industry has proved to be a profitable one.
