In effect this important manifesto may be considered an interpretation of the economic clauses of the Versailles Treaty and a modification of its terms, particularly as they affect Germany. The docment which is much ALLEGED FORGER ON WAY longer than the usual diplomatic memorandum, despite the fact that it has undergone many changees since it first was discussed by Premiers ses of present condintions and the second remedial measures to enable Germany and all Central Europe to regain an economic footing. For the allies have decided that the reconstruction of Europe cannnot begin until the former enemy nationss obtain raw materials and money with which

Discussing the manifesto troday one of the allied officials remarked that. while England France and Italy were in a position to weather the economic crisis of this year, Central Europe is in such a desperate condition that by April or May unless something is done now, there will be a complete collapse of the present Governmentts, industrties and civilization, which would drag other nations down with hem. The allies he said had recognized that their future depended to a considerabe degree, upon the re-adjustiment of Central Europe. With this principle recognized they had united upon a plan, publication of which may be expected at any hour. Dominated By Nationalism

"Every country in Europe today is dominated by a spirit of nationalism" this official said. "All want to make a ring around their own country and give nothing to any neighbor, but take and expect something from every other power. The war, of course, is responsible for this attitude. War and the Peace Treaty destroyed the economic eentities of Central Europe. The Dual Monarchy and the German Empire were economic units. Today they are split into several smal states each striving to establish its own economic existance. But these States cannot live by themselves.

"A smal country in Central Europe with only six or ten million inhabitants, canot be economically independent. No country in Europe can today This is the principle the Allies have

Everyone Should Drink Hot Water in the Morning

Wash away all stomach, liver, and bowel pelsons before breakfast.

To feel your best day in an day out, to feel clean inside; no sour bile to coat your tongue and sicken your breath or dull your head; no constipations attacks, sick headache, cion, billions attacks, sick headache colds, rheumatism or gassy, acid stom ach, you must bathe on the inside like you bathe outside. This is vastly more important because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.

To keep these poisons and toxins well bushed from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, drink before breakfast each day, a glassof hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will cleanse, purify, and freshen the entire ali-mentary tract before eating more food. Get a quarter pound of limestone hosphate from your pharmacist. It s inexpensive and almost tasteless Drink phosphated hot water every morning to rid your system of these vile poisous and toxins; also to prevent their formation.
