The company then adjourned to the Temperance hall, where the non-appearance of the oysters was fun'y compensated by an excellent spread of warm lowl, mashed potatoes, canned salmon, celery, cakes, coffee, tea and all the appurtenances of a tip top supper. The company was a merry one, and the entertainment was voted a success after all by those who had the pleasure of attending. The Benmiller Sous of Temperance are deserving of success.

The 'Literary Association held its meeting on Tuesday ev'ng, January 15th, with a fair attendance, and, judging by the Larmony and good feeling which exist among its members, a fair prospect of success for the year on which we have entered. An evidence of the prevailing harmony, and a pleasing feature of the meeting, consisted in the presentation to their President of a costly merchaum pipe and case, accompanied by an address, expressive of appreciation and aturch cheir, under the eadership of Mr. Greaves, rendered some sacred songs and anthems in a way which did credit to the leader and the Mr H. I. Strang gave a couple of good readings during the evening. The meeting was a most enjoyable one. Pro-
