Mrs. E. D. H. Wilkins left on Tuesday morning for Calgary for a month's visit with friends.

Mrs. Moore, of Brandon, is the guest of her sister Mrs. J. H. Martin for a couple of weeks.

Miss Ethel Moore expects to go down to Gull Lake almost directly. She and her sister from Lacombe have rented a cottage there for part of the summer.

The teachers who have been keeping house at the Wigram have disbanded for the summer months.

James Brackebridge is spending his holidays in the city.

Yesterday the 101 Ranch show gave two performances in the city and a parade in the morning. The shooting was exceptionally fine, and won great applause. The acrobatic feats on horseback and the lariat work delighted the audience. The attendance was good and the management expressed themselves as delighted with the city.

Watson Young was a holiday visitor in the city, the guest of his friend A. W. Keith.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pike of Canmore spent the holiday in the city.

Mrs. (Dr.) T.H. of Edmonton spent the holiday in the city the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Gould.

On Wednesday morning a church league baseball game was played between the Methodist and Presbyterians. The game ran fairly high the Presbyterians winning the day. A crowd gathered to witness the game.

The young people of Wetaskiwin celebrated Dominion Day by going on a picnic to the Pipestone. At 2:30 about 25 young people crowded into six large rigs, started on the eight-mile drive. The picnic grounds chosen were right beside the river and were exceedingly pretty. A very dainty lunch was served after which sides were chosen and a very exciting game of baseball played. About 10:30 the crowd came home singing college songs.

At the baseball game on Wednesday morning Tom Spencer had the misfortune to break his finger.

W. J. McNamara of the firm of McNamara & Rubbra, manufacturers of the Moose Brand Canned Corn, left last Saturday evening to attend the Dominion Fair at Calgary. Mr. McNamara was kept quite busy all day Saturday taking orders for his firm's machine. He stated that no less than two thousand great saw machines at work on First street on Thursday and Friday and that many orders were taken. Everyone who saw the demonstrations pronounced it an unequalled success. A demonstration was also to have been given on Sunday morning before the board of trade and a number of prominent citizens but the heavy rain prevented this. The machine will be on exhibition at the Dominion Fair at Calgary where it will also be seen at Wetaskiwin, July 2.

RED DEER.

Bulletin News Service.

Miss Ada Sanderson, Edmonton, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Carson.

Mrs. T. J. Leary and daughter, of Boston, are on a visit to Mr. Leary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton.

Mrs. W. P. Helliwell left on Tuesday for Calgary, where she will be joined on Thursday by Mr. Helliwell. After spending a few days in Calgary they will visit several days at the coast and other points. Mr. Wright will probably have charge of the Imperial bank during Mr. Helliwell's absence.

The new improvements at the C. P. R. station are completed and considerably increase the accommodation for staff and public.

Dr. H. George and J. A. Carewell were elected delegates to the Anglican synod, which meets in Calgary in August, at a recent meeting in St. Luke's church.

A large number of citizens took advantage of the cheap fares to visit Calgary on Dominion day. The train was overcrowded Tuesday evening, every seat being taken when the train left Red Deer.

The sale of the Alberta hotel property was called off on Tuesday afternoon owing to bids being too low. An offer of $21,000 was made for the property, but this did not reach the reserve bid and Auctioneer Bannerman postponed the sale.

The Methodist church of Red Deer was the scene of a quiet wedding on Tuesday at ten o'clock, when Helen Stephenson, daughter of Mrs. Mary Stephenson, was married to Mr. James Mann, of Red Deer, by the Rev. C. H. Huettner, M.A. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. A. T. Stephenson, and was a travelling suit of blue cloth and a white hat trimmed with chiffon and blue feather shaded into white. After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the residence of Councillor Stephenson, where a reception was held, and congratulations were showered upon the happy couple. A dainty luncheon was served, after which the bridal couple left on the southbound train for Calgary and other points, amidst showers of rice and best wishes of a large number of friends, who were present to see them off.

H. J. Snell has the silver football challenge shield on exhibition in his window. The design reflects great credit on Mr. Snell. It has the Alberta coat of arms in enamel and the deer's head on top, with a wreath of maple leaves and eight small shields around for the winners of the club. The shield is 36 inches high and 24 wide. Great interest is being centered here on the game between Dieburg and Red Deer school to be played on July 10th.
