Despair and Despondency

No one but a woman can tell the story of the suffering, the despair, and the despondency endured by women who carry a daily burden of ill-health and pain because of disorders and derangements of the delicate and important organs that are distinctly feminine. The tortures to bravely endured completely upset the nerves if long continued.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a positive cure for weakness and disease of the feminine organism.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG, SICK WOMEN WELL.

It allays inflammation, heals ulceration and soothes pain. It tones and builds up the nerves. It fits for wifehood and motherhood. Honest medicine dealers sell it, and have nothing to urge upon you as "just as good."

It is non-secret, non-alcoholic and has a record of forty years of cures. Ask Your Neighbors. They probably know of some of its many cures.

If you want a book that tells all about woman's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 31 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of mailing one, and he will send you a free copy of his great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to-date edition, in paper covers, handsome cloth-binding, 50 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Society People Held Up

By Robbers as They Leave Party and Bobbed of Money and Jewellery.

New York, Jan. 20.—An unusual hold-up was successfully pulled off in a fashionable section of up-town New York shortly before 1 o'clock this morning.

Mrs. Frances Elliott, a wealthy society woman, had been entertaining a party of guests at her home on West 50th street, and her guests were just putting on their wraps when five men pushed their way through the open door. With drawn revolvers the intruders lined up the hostess and her guests in train robber fashion and proceeded to go through the pockets of the men and the handbags of the women, now and then pausing to remove a tempting bit of jewellery.

Mrs. Elliott and her friends were so thoroughly frightened that they made no outcry until the five men had left the apartments. Then Mrs. Elliott called up police headquarters. A squad of detectives were detailed to the case.

The robbers secured $250 in money and jewellery valued at about $2,500.

Rubber Oysters.

They Brought Trade and Saved Their Inventor From Failure.

"Rubber oysters laid the foundation of my success," said a millionaire hotel man.

"I had a small saloon in them days, and things looked very black. They looked, in fact, like bankruptcy. So in desperation I cut an old rubber doormat into oyster shaped pieces on April 1 and fried them in egg and breadcrumbs to a tasty brown.

"There was only one man in the bar when I fetched in that dish of smoking rubber oysters. His eyes glittered, and he grabbed a fork, jabbed it into a big fellow and took a hungry bite.

"Seeing the surprised look that spread over his face, I turned away to hide a smile. He gave an awkward laugh and said:

"Them's the boys in my line. I'll bring a couple of the boys in to sample them."

"Sure enough, he brought two friends a half hour later. The friends no sooner saw the appetizing rubber oysters than, setting down their beer they each sunk their teeth in one.

"They, too, sent in friends for oysters. I fried up no less than three old doormats and two overshoes that April fool day. The whole town laughed, and the papers printed funny stories about my joke. My joint got real popular.

"In short, I was saved—saved from bankruptcy by rubber oysters." — Washington Post

Germany Militant.

"Eternal Peace" Mocked While Pres. Declares National Development is Strife.

Berlin, Jan. 18.—On the eve of the fortieth anniversary of the foundation of the Empire, the press indulged in an outburst of militant patriotism and natural pride over the nation's progress. The semi-official North German "Gazette" warns the country against resting on her laurels, and sternly admonishes her to remember that the development of nation is strife, nothing but strife. General von De Meit, whom the Kaiser made a field marshal on New Year's Day, made a speech of a similar tenor, saying, among other things: "The devotees of eternal peace have received sharp sword thrusts from Germany. It would be merciful to strike deeper their wound, but I would recall Count von Moltke's saying: 'Eternal peace is a dream, and not even a pleasant dream.'"

Had Eczema In Both Legs

Remarkable cure of Chronic Eczema by use of DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT.

You could scarcely imagine a more severe test of this ointment than the cure of Mrs. Clark recorded here. For twenty years she suffered all the tortures of this terrible disease and tried in vain the prescriptions of doctors and the cures commonly recommended.

Mr. Fred W. Clark, Petworth, Ont., writes—"My mother had Eczema in both legs for about 20 years and suffered from the dreadful itching, stinging sensations which can never be described. She doctored and tried everything for it but got no relief until she used Dr. Chase's Ointment which was recommended to her by a friend. She found that this brought relief and by continuing its use she was cured of Eczema. I do not think any one could have this horrible disease any worse than she did and can recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment as a thorough cure for Eczema."

Dr. Chase's Ointment, 50 cents a box, at all dealers of Edmanston, Bates & Co., Toronto. Dr. Chase's Recipes sent free.

Indigestion is Ended Forever.

No Heartburn, Gas, Dypesia or Headache five minutes later.

Nothing will remain undigested or sour on your stomach if you will take a little Diapepsin occasionally. This powerful digestive and antacid, though as harmless and pleasant as candy, will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you can eat.

Eat what your stomach craves without the slightest fear of indigestion or that you will be bothered with sour risings, Belching, Gas on Stomach, Heartburn, Headaches from stomach, Nausea, Bad Breath, Water Brash or a feeling like you had swallowed a lump of lead or other disagreeable miseries. Should you be suffering now from any stomach disorder you can get relief within five minutes.

If you will get from your pharmacist a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin you could always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and your meals would taste good, because you would know there would be no indigestion or Sleepless nights or Headache or Stomach misery all the next day; and besides, you would not need laxatives or liver pills to keep your stomach and bowels clean and fresh.

Pape's Diapepsin can be obtained from your druggist, and contains more than sufficient to thoroughly cure the worst case of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. There is nothing better for Gas on the Stomach or sour odors from the Stomach or to cure a Stomach Headache.

You couldn't keep a handier or more useful article in the house.

London Anarchists.

Verdict in Sidney Street Battle Inquiry—Dangerous Aliens.

London, Jan. 18.—The inquest on the death of the two desperadoes who perished in their Sidney Street home, while resisting the police and military, was concluded to-day. The verdict of the jury was that the man known as "Josef" was shot to death, the victim of a justifiable homicide, and that his companion, known as "Fritz," died of pneumonia.

The jury added a rider declaring that the fact that such an extraordinary occurrence was possible, should lead to the framing of more stringent measures for dealing with criminal aliens arriving in this country.

Mr. Winston Churchill appeared in the witness box, with the object of refuting some of the stories of his assumption of the office of commander-in-chief of the force engaged in the battle.

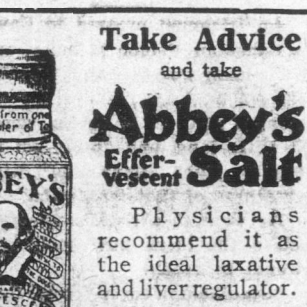

He declared that the troops were on the spot before he had heard that a riot was in progress. He denied that he overrode or directed the police who, he said, had an absolutely free hand. He thought that the action of the police in restraining the firemen from attacking the flames after the house had been fired, was humane and perfectly justifiable under the circumstances.

Two Runaway Boys.

Two young lads, 15 and 17 years of age, sons of Mr. J. Phillips, of Bell Street, caused their parents a good deal of anxiety the past 48 hours. The eldest boy worked at the R. N. Co. machine shop. They left home together Monday morning and unknown to their parents, walked to Portugal Cove, where they boarded the s.s. Progress and crossed over to Bell Island. Their parents were in a state of deep anxiety Monday night when the boys did not arrive home as usual. They made enquiries later and found that they were gone to Bell Island.

Yesterday when people came over from the Island, Mr. Phillips was informed that the boys were seen on the Island Monday looking for a job at the manager's office. He sent a despatch to Sergt. Cox to look after the boys and send them home. Mr. Hibbs will bring them over from the Cove to-day. The younger boy stayed away from his home on the previous night also.
