Uncle Walt
THE POET PHILOSOPHER.

He comes when I am sick at heart from toiling in the busy mart, when worn by grievances and woes, my soul is longing for repose. He comes, this weird and windy chap, and lays a volume in my lap, a THE BOOK tome that weighs a hundred, net, and says: "This beats AGENT them all you bet! You'll never see it's like again—The Lives of Fifty Famous Men!" Now, here's a sketch of ancient sage, and when you turn to folio page, you find a map of Dr.
Cook—there never was so smooth a book!" And as his words on me descend, I know he'll get me in the end. He'll beat me by his sinful art, and wear me out and break my heart. And if, to shield my hearth and home, I brain him with his weighty tome, the janitor of the law will lead me to a couch of straw and clanking chains in prison cell—and I would ask if this is well? Why is it wrong to shed the gore of agents when they seek your door, and talk until your bosom bleeds, and sell you books that no one reads? I slew an agent long ago; with fervid zeal I broke bones, and worked the fine out freaking stones.

Household Notes.

A solution of oxalic acid is good to clean copper and brass.

A sun bath is of more value to health than much warming by the fire.

A piece of hame bone added to vegetable or stock soup will improve the flavor.

One teaspoonful of ammonia to a cupful of water will clean gold or silver jewelry.

To cure the stinging of wasp or bee, mix common earth with water and apply at once.

Candles will last much longer if they are kept on ice twenty-four hours before using.

To let vines climb up on wooden walls will seriously damage them, as it promotes decay.

Hardly any better dusting cloth can be found than the old-fashioned red bandana handkerchief.

If an oven is too hot, the temperature may be lowered by opening the lid of the range a trifle.

When making panned oysters it is essential to have the pan piping hot before putting anything into it.

When making sweet croquettes, add a little sugar to the crumbs in which the croquettes are to be rolled.

A pinch of soda added to water in which tough meat or vegetables are boiled will make them more tender.

Pans greased with butter will make the bottom crust of pies soft and flaky and prevent them from being soggy.

Celery can be much improved by soaking it for an hour in cold water in which a lemon has been squeezed.

Instead of using soap and water to polish painted surfaces, boil a pound of bran in a gallon of water and strain it.

To clean a copper kettle, rub it with powdered bath brick and paraffin and polish with dry brickdust or whiting.

If bread is wrapped in a paraffin paper as soon as it is taken from the oven it will keep fresh and moist much longer.

When finely chopped nuts are needed for cake, salad or sandwiches, the nuts should be run through the mincing machine.

To clean chamolais skin so that it will be soft after the washing, wring it out of the soapy water and dry without rinsing.

For a slightly and tasty addition to the salad, sprinkle it lightly with finely minced green pepper or finely shredded pistachio nuts.

Before using the broiler for fish, heat it and rub over with a piece of salt pork. It will make the broiling process simple.

Towels should be perfectly dry before they are placed in the linen press or mold is liable to form upon them and cause skin diseases.

Neuralgia may be often relieved by applying a cloth saturated with essence of peppermint to the seat of the pain and leaving it there.

To keep tulips, used as table decorations, from opening wide, a tiny bit of wax should be dropped into the calyx of each flower.

Bent whalebone, the genuine article, may be straightened by soaking it in boiling water for a few minutes and then ironing it straight.

Chiropodists say that a shoe that will not allow the great toe to lie in a straight line should not be worn if it is desired to avoid bunions.

While the whole egg is generally used for dipping croquettes the yolk alone, with a little water added, will be found quite as satisfactory.

If mutton chops simmer in just a little water on the back of the stove before being broiled or fried, the flavor will be quite like lamb chops.

It is wise to break eggs one at a time into a cup and to transfer each one as it is broken. Then, if one proves bad, the whole dish will not be spoiled.

George Gorman, the well-known shipwright of the west end was today reported missing to the police by his daughters and there are grave fears that a serious mishap has befallen him. He accompanied by a man named Walsh went troutling Tuesday at Western Pond Barrens.
The men fished along all day after arriving and spent the night there. Yesterday at 11 o'clock, Walsh told Gorman that he was going to bathe in another part of the pond and left coming back to St. John's. As Gorman did not turn up to-day at his home his family became alarmed and as stated above informed the police of his absence. What increases their feeling of uneasiness about the man is that Gorman is given to fainting spells of long duration. The police located Walsh to-day and Supt.
Grimes despatched Head Const.
Sparrow and officer Farraday accompanied by Walsh to the pond. The police took along jiggers fearing that Gorman might have fallen in the pond and been drowned.

Conception Harbor Garden Party.

The excursion to Conception Harbor yesterday was attended by a large number of people from the city —possibly 300. There were many thousands from different parts of the District of Harbor Main. The weather was all that could be desired except that the wind blew a little too hard to carry out the boat races that were on the programme. The St.
John's visitors left the city at 9.10 a.
m. and reached Avondale about noon.
Carriages were at the station in which the people were driven to Conception Harbor free of charge. They were hospitably received by Rt. Rev. Monsignor Veitch and his energetic committee. As soon as the ladies had been driven to the grounds the carriages went back towards the station and picked up the male portion of the St. John's contingent at different points on the road, and by 1.30 all were on the grounds sitting down to well-filled tables. Hot dinners were served and all the guests were well pleased with the bounteous manner in which the eatables were served. After dinner the strangers visited the places of interest at Conception Harbor including the Church, Convent, Schools and Hall. The customary games and sports were indulged in on the beautiful grounds near the Convent where the tables were spread.
At 3 p.m. Monsignor Veitch announced that the football contest and pony race would take place at St. John's Field at the west end of the Harbor about a mile distant. All who were interested in these events fled out of the grounds and followed Mr. Higgins, Mr. C. W. Ellis and Magistrate O'Toole who were working so zealously to have an interesting programme. Some drove up in carriages and others went up in the gasoline launch "Senta" which was at the disposal of the public free of charge all day. When the sports were over all hands trooped back to the Convent grounds where an excellent tea was served. The T. A. Band played some very fine selections for an hour afterwards, and at 8 o'clock the young folks repaired to the Academy Hall where dancing was kept up till midnight. The Euphrates brought some of the visitors to Holyrood where they caught the train at 1.30 a.m., the others either drove up or walked up to Avondale. Despite a few hitches in this part of the programme the event was a great success as is every thing else that is undertaken by the zealous Monsignor who spent a most strenuous day in the endeavor to make the outing as enjoyable as possible for the people especially visitors outside the parish. It was a big undertaking, and as it was the first ever held at Conception we heartily congratulate the Monsignor and the people on the result.

Auto Accident.

Yesterday afternoon on the Cape Broyle road the automobiles of Mr. W.
D. Reid and Mr. C. Ayre collided going over a hill near that village. The cars struck with considerable impact.
Mr. Reid's machine being a very heavy and speedy one. The occupants of Ayre's were all thrown out. Mr.
W. D. Reid was thrown against the glass wind screen which was broken in pieces. Hon. M. P. Cashin who also was in the tonneau escaped any serious injury. Otto Oppelt, Mr.
Reid's chauffeur, had his arm injured and was obliged to put it in a sling.
Ayre's auto was badly broken. Mr.
Reid's machine being a very strong one was not seriously damaged. It was a head on collision.

B. I. S. OUTING.

The event of next week will be the Benevolent Irish Society's outing which comes off Wednesday next at Donovan's. The Society's outing has always been an enjoyable item in the summer round and this year's event promises to be, if possible better than past ones. The committee this year have engaged a special train to leave town at 4.20, thus giving 'outers' ample time to prepare without the inconvenient rush of other years to catch the regular excursion train.
