That Post Office Controversy.

Editor Evening Telegram.
 Sir:—In the last issue of the Plaindealer a letter appeared headed, "Fox Harbor People Dissatisfied," and signed "Sufferer."
 I don't know what he wants to pretend he is suffering from, but I know one thing he is suffering from is an untruthful disposition. In the commencement of his letter he tells a bare-faced lie. He says that the position of Post Mistress was taken from a poor widow. On the contrary the widow resigned her position of Post Mistress over four months ago. After she had resigned I was ordered to take the position and accordingly did so.
 Now sir, does it appear to you as if were taken from her? Whoever "Sufferer" is he has disgraced himself right away by publishing this lie.
 After she had resigned her position as Post Mistress, the Postal Telegraph Office remained in a room of her house and she got rent for the room. I understand that when the office was removed the woman got a pension that exceeds the amount of rent she used to get for the room. So you see the removal of the office was in no way an injury to her.
 Sufferer says also that the widow might have been thrown out on the street only the house was her own. I wonder how did he come to get such an idea into his head. No one ever said a word to the woman. It was I who stood in danger of being thrown on the street. I guess its better for four or five men (for they do call themselves men) here that their deeds of Saturday Oct. 26th, be kept hidden, as their publication would lower them considerably in the sight of all right-minded people.
 Again Sufferer says that the office is now away outside the center of the Harbor. The office was in the extreme end of the Harbor before. It's new position is much more convenient and is about two minutes' walk from the very center of the Harbor.
 Before, it was about 12 minutes' walk from the center of the Harbor being at the extreme end. For the great majority of the people it was ten minutes' walk further to go to the old office than it is to go to the new one. So here Sufferer has again asserted his untruthful disposition.
 Now then Mr. Sufferer wants a runner to carry his letters, and messages for him. Well, when a message comes for Sufferer or any other man in Fox Harbor it is delivered promptly, and if he can say anything to the contrary let him come out under his true name, and say it, and it won't take long to prove the falsehood of his assertion. Again if Mr. Sufferer comes with a message or with letters, etc. to be mailed or for his mail he will find that it will take him ten minutes less to go to the new office, than it used to take him to walk to the old one. That is if he is one of the great majority mentioned above.
 Sufferer also says something about "Fox Rule." If he is one of the fellows who tried to prevent the removal of the office by force he must be trying to introduce Home Rule in Fox Harbor sure enough.
 It looks as if himself and two or three of his colleagues want to take the law into their own hands, and that's Home Rule with a vengeance.
 Again I say let Sufferer come out under his right name so that we can see who this disgraceful lying babbler is. I have truth and justice at my back and I am not afraid of any man of the name of "Sufferer." He will know who I am by my signature below and he will see that I am not afraid to be known as I am out publishing any falsehood. Now Mr. Editor we must see such men as "Sufferer" as a liar is worse than a rascal. Remember what the poet says: "Who steals my purse steals trash 'Twas mine, 'tis his and has been Since to thousands." But he who filches from me my good name, Robs me of that which not enriches him but makes me poor in deed." Thank you Mr. Editor for space, I am, yours truly,
 OPERATORES,
 Fox Harbor, Nov. 11 1912.

Sudden Death.

By the Fogota we learn that a very sudden death occurred on Monday morning early at Musgrave Harbor. Mr. John Goodyear, of that place, retired the night before apparently in the best of health, but was suddenly stricken in his sleep. His wife was awakened by hearing him moaning, and before she could render aid he had expired, death being due to heart disease. The deceased who was in his 45th year was well liked in his native town.

Fogota Here.

The S. S. Fogota, Capt. B. Barbour, arrived here at 4.30 p.m. yesterday. She left here last Thursday evening, touched at Kettle Cove to land 30 passengers, and had a very stormy trip north with a continuous gale of N. E. wind and a big sea. The ship arrived at Change Islands, the terminus, at 3 a.m. on Monday and leaving at 9 a.m. on Tuesday had fine weather coming south. The nights were very dark and here the utility of the ship's searchlight was demonstrated as but for it she would be unable to make several ports. The ship brought up 1,200 drums fish from Messrs. Earle and Franklyn and some other freight with several passengers.

Bell Island Regatta Committee

Semi-Final Meeting Session, 1912.
 The semi-final meeting of the Bell Island Regatta Committee for the season 1912, took place in St. Joseph's Hall, Bell Island, last week. The President, Mr. C. F. Taylor, who has filled the presidential chair with general satisfaction and the ease and dignity for which he is personally noted, during the past four years, occupied the chair.
 The minutes of the last meeting having been read by the Secretary Mr. J. M. Greene, the correspondent having been attended to, the outstanding bills passed. The Treasurer, Mr. R. Proudfoot then submitted his report, showing a balance on hand after all expenses in connection with the Regatta and Field Sports had been paid, thus leaving the Committee in a good financial condition. This report was received with much enthusiasm.
 Mr. R. J. Costigan, one of the pioneers of regattas on Bell Island in a splendid speech congratulated the Executive, Messrs. Taylor, Maine and Proudfoot and Greene, for their work during the season. He had no hesitation in emphasizing the fact that this season had been a splendid one for the Committee.
 Considerable discussion took place as to what form the year's "Finale" would take, eventually on motion of Mr. J. M. Greene, it was unanimously decided to hold a dinner about the latter part of the month, the Committee individually defraying the cost of the same. The dinner this year taking the place of a smoker as in former years.
 At 11.15 after a most enthusiastic meeting it was declared adjourned.

A New Party.

If I'm hale and strong and hearty when the next campaign begins, I will start the Sorehead party—that's the sort of thing that wins. 'Twill be better far than tonics for the disappointed reformers who are lame; they'll come to it helter skelter, when they learn its noble aim. Every statesman, full of sorrow, who would even up old scores, in the Sorehead ranks may borrow ointment for his wounds and sores. Oh, the party may be trusted to deserve the public thanks; only those who are disgusted will be welcome to our ranks. If the soreheads will assemble in one party, out for gore, all the other hosts may tremble as they never did before. In the past they have been scattered—small success to them has come. But when once they are united, standing with unbroken front, oh, the gods will be delighted as they do their winning stunt. Every aleck, every smarty, should get busy right away! Come and join the Sorehead Party—write your name down no—delay!

CHRONIC BRONCHITIS
 Cannot be cured with ordinary soothing syrups. The disease must be attacked at the root to eradicate the irritation of the lungs, heal the wounds and strengthen the respiratory organs. The composition of of Tar and Cod Liver Oil and other Medicinal Extracts marks it amongst all other remedies as the true specific for the diseases of the throat, the bronchial tubes and the lungs. Here are a few conclusive proofs:

 THOMPSON, N.S., Mch. 29, '06.

 Dear Sirs,—I rec'd yours of the 27th nit, asking about Mathieu's Syrup. It is an excellent Medicin for coughs, cold and consumption. Please send me another lot of 2 doz. bots. with samples. Enclosed find $3.00 the amount of my bill.
 Yours truly,
 A. F. DICKSON.
 SPRINGHILL, N.S., April 4
 Dear Sirs,—In reference to your inquiry as to the selling qualities of Mathieu's Syrup, we might say that it is of no use whatever for us to keep any other Cough Medicine in stock. When you first began to sell it here, the Druggists did not handle it, and now every Druggist in town has it, and we are sure they find a ready sale for it. Mathieu's Syrup is sold by at least 8 dealers in Springhill.
 FERRIS & PEEL.

AGAINST HEADACHE there is no remedy so active as Mathieu's Nerve Powders which contain no opium, morphine or choral. 25 cents per box of 18 powders.
