

The Police Court.

A drunk was discharged.
Three others were each fined $1 or $3 days.
A drunk and disorderly was fined $2 or 7 days.
A man who was taken in last night for safekeeping, was released this morning.
A fireman, who deserted from the s.s. Westward, was held over.
The enquiry into the drowning accident, which took place on the 1st of the month, is being continued to-day.

The Solution.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir.—The solution of the difficulty regarding St. Patrick's Day, seems to me to lie in the letter of "Erin" in this morning's News. It would be very regrettable if the usual festivities in connection with the day should have to be abandoned this year above all others, and I quite agree with "Erin" when he says that the holiday could be arranged for the Thursday preceding the 17th, without anyone suffering inconvenience.
I would not be writing did I not feel this matter to be an important one, for not only does it appeal to the Irish section of our people, but I may say that two-thirds of the population of the Island are also in sympathy. Let us hope that this year as formerly we shall hear the strains of "The Banks of Newfoundland" and "Garry-owen," co-mingle on the morn of a common holiday.

Yours truly,

NEWFOUNDLANDER.

McMurdo's Store News.

MONDAY, Feb. 10th, 1913.
A cup of hot Oxo is a great thing on a cold day. It provides a rapid and pleasant stimulating and warming drink without the disadvantages of alcoholic stimulants, as it is stated to contain a certain amount of nourishment. One cube of Oxo will make a good cup of steaming hot beef tea nicely seasoned and very comforting and appetizing. Price 15 and 25c, a box containing 4 and 10 cubes, respectively.

Do not fail if your hands, face, or lips are sprayed, rough or abraded, to procure a crock of Cream of Lilies which will soften, soothe, and heal the irritated skin and make it like velvet. Many people are using it this season who have not used it before, and are finding it "just right" for the skin and complexion. Price 25c, a crock.

Mistaken Identity.

The wrangle among the artists and the city critics about the exhibition of the late Sir Lawrence Alma-Tadema's paintings recalls a story that concerns the close resemblance between the great painter and Mr. George du Maurier.

A lady sitting beside one of them at dinner one night refused to admit that there was a resemblance.

"You know, Mr. Alma-Tadema," said she, "I think it is quite too ridiculous of people to say that you and Mr. du Maurier are alike. There is a slight resemblance, but you are both quite unlike each other. Now, you are not a bit like Mr. du Maurier, really. Don't you agree with me?"

"I don't," was the reply; "but then, you see, I happen to be Mr. du Maurier!"

A DIFFERENCE

It Paid This Man to Change Food.
"What is called 'good living' eventually brought me to a condition quite the reverse of good health," writes a New York merchant.

"Improper eating told on me till my stomach became so weak that food nauseated me, even the lightest and simplest lunch, and I was much depressed after a night of uneasy slumber, unfitting me for business."

"This condition was discouraging, as I could find no way to improve it. Then I saw the advertisement of Grape-Nuts food, and decided to try it, and became delighted with the result."

"For the past three years I have used Grape-Nuts and nothing else for my breakfast and for lunch before retiring. It speedily set my stomach right and I congratulate myself that I have regained my health. There is no greater comfort for a tired man than a lunch of Grape-Nuts. It insures restful sleep, and an awakening in the morning with a feeling of buoyant courage and hopefulness."

"Grape-Nuts has been a boon to my whole family. It has made of our 2-year-old boy, who used to be unable to digest much of anything, a robust, healthy, little rascal weighing 32 pounds. Mankind certainly owes a debt of gratitude to the expert who invented this perfect food." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. "There's a reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

AN "INVICTUS" SHOE FOR EVERY NEED.

Whatever you require, whether in Society, Business or Sport, there is an "INVICTUS" Shoe made to fill that need.

In Style, Fit, Comfort and Quality it is unsurpassed.

Conceded to be in every respect a trustworthy Shoe, the "INVICTUS" is deservedly called "the best good Shoe."

A large stock of this popular Shoe now here.

AGENT GEO. A. SLATER.

A shoe for well-dressed men. Costs enough to insure a perfect shoe, but is as low as a shoe of this character can be sold. Seen beside a cheaper shoe, the difference is unmistakable. Men who want appearance, satisfying wear, and solid comfort, should wear the "Invictus Shoe."

A Knighted Modiste.

Perhaps Napoleon the Great would turn restlessly in his grave if he could know that just about a hundred years ago after his foundation of the Legion of Honor, a woman dressmaker, Mme. Paquin, had been made a chevalier of that order and authorized to wear the five-pointed white enamel star with the legend 'Honneur et Patrie' on one side and a figure of the Republic on the other. This has been done. We are under the impression that philosophic Frenchmen regard it as proper. Art in dressmaking is worth stimulating. If Mme. Paquin is prompt in finishing a job, and honest about what women call "keeping the pieces," she is not unworthy of the recognition of her virtues.

The Legion of Honor, established May 19, 1802, did not exclude the renowned persons of civil life. Napoleon was then First Consul. Two years before he had whipped the Austrians at Marengo. Austerlitz was to come three years and a half later. The new order was brought in one month after the amnesty to the Emigres, to months after the Peace of Amiens. Probably it was identified in the First Consul's mind with peace as much as with war.

At the beginning the Legion of Honor had 3,665 chevaliers 450 officers, 300 commanders, 105 grand officers, and one grand master, who was Napoleon Bonaparte. The "grand cross" rank was added in 1872. Members of all ranks numbered 43,851 twenty years ago. The number at present must be a shade over 50,000. One dressmaker will do no particular harm in such a mass of distinguished persons.

Cop's Shot Struck Wrong Man.

Winnipeg, Jan. 30.—John Zeopik, a Ruthenian, is lying in the General Hospital with a bullet in his right temple as the result of a revolver shot fired this morning by William Andrew Wisely, police constable, at another man who stole two bottles of milk from a delivery wagon. Wisely saw the man who took the bottles from a wagon, drew his revolver and fired. The bullet went wide and struck Zeopik. His condition is serious. Wisely is being held awaiting the outcome of Zeopik's injuries.

WOMEN SMASH WINDOWS OF HOME OF ARCHBISHOP.

London, January 30.—One of the boldest suffragettes ever arrested by the police, was taken in the toils this evening, after she had attacked the residence of the Archbishop of Canterbury, and smashed several windows.

The woman admitted she had planned to attack Buckingham Palace, and, if possible, get a personal interview with King George.

Her confession resulted in orders being issued to allow no women within the grounds of Buckingham Palace, save those known to be anti-suffragists.

A COLD NIGHT.—Last night was about the coldest for the season with a high wind prevailing. The thermometer registered five below zero in the city.

"A pennyworth of butterdrops, please."
When the sweets were ready the boy exclaimed:
"Oh, I see you've got some mint rock."

"You can have mint rock if you like," said the genial shopkeeper.
"Well, I think I will."
The boy looked round with longing eyes. Just as the little packet was made up he said: "I notice you have some toffee."

"Would you rather have toffee?"
"Please, Mrs. Brown."
She handed him the toffee, and he at once made towards the door.
"You didn't pay for the toffee!" shouted Mrs. Brown.

"I gave you the mint rock instead."
"But you didn't pay for the mint rock."
"I left the butter-drops instead."
"I left the butter-drops for it."
"You didn't pay for them either."
"No, you remember, Mrs. Brown, I never really got them."

Fatal Accident.

At noon to-day Mr. C. H. Hutchings, Deputy Minister of Justice, received a message from Magistrate Fitzgerald, at Grand Falls, stating that Horace Rice, of Norris Arm, and who was working at Goodyear's logging camp, Badger, was fatally injured there on Friday last, by a tree falling on him. He was taken to Grand Falls Hospital where he died Saturday night from injuries sustained.

Train Notes.

No. 1 rotary, which came along ahead of the express, which arrived here yesterday, is to-day at Miller-ton Junction.

No. 2 rotary left Glenwood for the Topsails at 12.30 p.m. to-day.

An express left here last evening for Port aux Basques.

The Bruce express left Port aux Basques at 11.30 a.m. yesterday with the Bruce mails and passengers, and is due here to-morrow.

Ragout of Squid.

There is a little Spanish restaurant near the Battery, that serves meals at which no epicure need sneeze. Among the choice dishes of the establishment is a ragout of squid—our old friend of fishing days caught by the thousand every day and cut into bait for cod, pollock and haddock. Maine fishermen turn up their blithe noses at a squid, and yet, as cooked at the Spanish restaurant in New York, squid shows the Maine fishermen are doing a grave injustice to an excellent edible fish.—Tip, in New York Press.

PORTIA SAILS.—The s.s. Portia, Capt. Keen, sails at 10 a.m. to-morrow for Western ports, taking a large freight.

LEAVES TO-MORROW.—Constable Chafe, of Cape Broyle, who was here on leave, goes home by the Portia, to-morrow.

NO EXPRESS.—No Bruce express to Port aux Basques will be despatched this evening, but a local train will go forward.

AT STATION.—The owner of a box of baking powder, picked up last week can get it from Inspector Collins at the police station.

DIPHTHERIA.—Yesterday afternoon, a case of diphtheria was reported from Hamilton Street. Dr. Brehm was informed and had the patient removed to the fever hospital.

EXPRESS ARRIVES.—The Bruce express which arrived here at 2.40 p.m. yesterday, brought a number of passengers. Preceded by No. 1 rotary, the express came over the Gaff Topsails on Saturday evening, but the weather was fine and she had no difficulty in getting along. At Leach's Brook and east from that place about 200 men are employed over three miles of the track keeping ice off the rails. In the recent severe weather some of the men were badly frost-bitten.

Allan Liner Here

The R. M. S. Sardinian, Capt. Hathery, arrived in port at daylight this morning from Philadelphia, which port she left at 11 a.m. on Tuesday. Strong head winds were experienced during the passage. Last evening after the ship got inside of Cape Race it was very stormy. At midnight she attempted to enter the Narrows, but owing to the ice preventing the pilot from getting aboard, the ship put off to sea again. She brought 800 tons of cargo but no passengers. The Sardinian sails for Glasgow to-morrow evening. Thirty saloon and thirteen steerage passengers are booked to go.

Doing Well

The men Shannahan, Devreux, Hayse and Ryan who were scalded in the N. S. S. Co's boiler house, at Bell Island, Thursday, are doing well, all are in hospital and are being looked after by the doctors. The accident occurred before 1 p.m. as the men were boiling their kettles, and when the tubes of the boiler burst the place was filled with scalding steam and hot water poured out on them also. They suffered intense pain for a while.

Couldn't Discharge.

Besides the logs which she had for Bell Island the S. S. Adventure also had a cargo of coal for the D. I. & S. Co. She had only part of this discharged when the ice began to make rapidly in Conception Bay and she had to leave for Sydney Friday afternoon or else she would have become frozen in.

One Hundred Thousand Say 'Tis So.

Of all the engines in the land, Fairbanks is a beauty; 'tis guaranteed for years to stand, and always does its duty; and now we'll have our readers know, and let them duly note it, one hundred thousand say 'tis so, and to it they're devoted. Fairbanks never yet went wrong, nor couldn't if it tried it; 'tis durable, 'tis neat and strong, the rest are "fools" beside it. So if an engine you would buy, 'tis up at BARR'S you'll get it; and you may bet it now, my boy, you never will regret it.
