

Highlanders' Promotions and Presentations.

The Newfoundland Highlanders, under command of Adjutant Henderson and Capt. W. Herder, held a full dress parade at their Armoury last night. There was a goodly number of friends and supporters of the brigade present, including Rev. Gordon Dickie, M. A., Chaplain; Mrs. Dickie and Surgeon Major Paterson of the 1st Nfld. Regiment, who is also Lieut. Colonel of the Brigade. Following the inspection the lads were put through a number of exercises, performing them in a faultless manner, which speaks well for the officers in charge who are untiring in the efforts and have the interest of every lad at heart.

Rev. Mr. Dickie, who has a deep interest in the welfare of the lads, congratulated them on their splendid appearance and exhorted them always to uphold the name of Highlander, remembering at all times the noble examples and deeds of bravery that have been performed by those gallant men who all through our military history are respected as being of the best. From their own little band had gone many of its brave lads, who had ably acquitted themselves in the field. To those who had fallen he paid a high tribute, making special reference to Capt. Jas. Ledingham, 1st Nfld. Regiment, who had been a member of the Highlanders since its inception and at the time of enlisting with "Ours" was an officer in the Brigade.

Rev. Mr. Dickie then presented the prizes and conduct stripes to the fortunate winners. Conduct stripes were awarded to L.-Corp. Puslie, Ptes. C. Thorburn, H. Lewis, W. Taylor, W. Antle, J. Penney and F. James. For the best kept camp, prizes were donated by Mr. Jacob Barrett, an ex-member of the brigade, and were awarded to Ptes. Symonds, Hopkins, Clarke and Fry.

Ptes. Antle, Fry and Taylor were promoted to be Lance-Corporals.

Bay de Verde Notes.

The schr. Bruce, Capt. Hogan, arrived yesterday from St. John's. She will take back a load of fish purchased for the Gorton Pew Co.

The schr. Jane, Capt. Churchill, will also load fish for the Gorton Pew Co.

It is estimated that the Gorton Pew Co. have purchased over 15,000 qts. of fish at this place and Lower Island Cove this fall, at nine to nine-fifty, for dry fish and six-sixty ship cure.

A few boats still venture on the fishing grounds and procure fair catches when the weather permits.

Mr. Hall, the popular manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia at Old Perlican, was here yesterday. Mr. Hall is an obliging and courteous official and is doing well.

Juvena the great renowned magician and hand-cuff king is now here and is drawing crowded houses. He is presenting a high class repertoire of superb illusions and magical mysteries that fairly amaze his audience.

Messrs. Moore, Archer and Miss Masie Burt gave fine shows here last week.

The Church of England Sale of Work held in St. Barnabas Hall achieved a splendid success and nearly five hundred dollars was realized. —COR.
