The bride of a year was certain hat her husband did not love her nearly so much as when they were first married. Accordingly she went to a fortune-teller in order to find out what the stars had to say about

The mystery woman looked in her glass for a while, then, in a low, onorous accent she said: "Get a raw piece of beef, cut flat about an inch thick. Slice an onion in two and rub the meat on both sides with it. Put on pepper and salt to taste, and grill it on both sides over a bright fire. Drop on three small lumps of butter and two sprigs of parsley. Serve this up with the usual trimmings and get him to
