—The proposed visit of the Thirteenth Battalion, of Hamilton, to this city on May 24, has awakened the military spirit of the local militiamen. The weekly drill of the Seventh Friday night was unusually well attended, the staff parade numbering 49. A Quarrelsome Couple.

James Ryan and his wife seem to think that fighting each other is a part of domestic life, and are frequently brought before the magistrate for these family jars. P. C.
Crawford found the couple pounding each other at the corner of Waterloo and Grosvenor streets Saturday. The husband appeared to be getting the worst of it, as his head was bleeding from two or three outs. The pair were hustled into the patrol wagon, and even there it required a policeman's efforts to prevent them resuming their pugllistic relations.

Mr. Frank Jannison, who is employed at the Grand Trunk round house with the boiler-makers, met with what may prove a fatal accident Saturday. He was in the act of holding a rivet while standing under a locomotive, when another engine was moved too far on the turntable, causing some planks to fall where he was standing, Jamieson thus getting the full force of the engine on his side. He was removed to his home on South street in the ambulance and medical aid was at once summoned. The doctor pronounced it a serious case, the victim being hurt internally.

Against this last demand the bosses urge that some men are not worth as much as of the first away of the gradient of the rest. These demands were made by the men a couple of weeks ago, and the bosses were to have given them a definite answer last Monday. DUBLIN, March 21.—Michael Davitt was interviewed yesterday and said: "My advice to the workingmen is to abstain from strikes for three years, to organize and to increase their funds. Then they will be in a good position to place their demands before their employers. The question of land is at the bottom of all labor difficulties. If the labor problem is not solved by legislation then will be the time for the working men to provide a remedy by the nationalization of land."

Curious Experiment in Skin Grafting.

READING, Pa., March 21.—The exchanges of skin which Dr. John Ege, of this city, effected between black and white persons have now healed perfectly, and his first impressions that the black skin grafted on to a white person turns white, while the white skin grafted on to a black person remains white, has been confirmed. The white skin remains as white as ever, while the black skin has become as white as that which surrounds it.

DUNDAS STREET.

Has just been running one week. During that time thousands of dollars worth of goods have been sold at Powell's old stand. The crowds of purchasers, if possible, increase day by day. Saturday's business was a marvelous rush for the wonderful bargains. Everybody who has bought a parcel from us seems to be doing the wise thing, that is, telling friends and neighbors about the greatest of all sales for bargains ever held in London. Let the citizens of London remember it is not old rubbish of goods citizens of London remember it is not old rubbish of goods that are offered for sale, but the finest of German, French, English and Canadian goods that are offered to purchasers.

This great rush must be kept up every day this week. Fresh inducements will be offered in the way of extra cuts. Let all remember the finest Black and Colored Henrietta goods are being sold at the bankrupt price; also all Cottons, Sheetings, etc. Remember, please, the doors swing open every morning sharp at 10 o'clock, not one moment earlier nor later. We close at 6 sharp, except Saturday, when we keep open until 10:30 p.m. sharp. As we have three hours less to do our business than any of the other stores, we have got to rush business while we are at it. No books kept. Every article sold must be spot cash.
