In the interest of the masses, for whom these reports are compiled, the United States Health Reports have examined and investigated many preparations having for their object the cure of the tobacco habit, but among them all we have no hesitancy in giving the editorial and official endorsement of these reports to the remedy known as "Uncle Sam's Tobacco Cure," manufactured by the Keystone Remedy Company, at 212 La Salle street, Chicago. They are distributing literature this week all through the city, and in the light of our examinations and tests of "Uncle Sam's Tobacco Cure," we are but performing a duty we owe the public when we indorse the same, and stamp it as the crowning achievement of the nineteenth century, in the way of destroying a habit as disgusting as it is common (For Only $1) the Order of the Day.The annual picnic of the London Retail Grocers' Association, at Stag Island, yesterday, was in every way a great success. Nearly 500 excursionists attended, and two trains were required to carry them.The first train arrived in the Tunnel City at 10:15 a.m., and was made up of eight coaches and a baggage car. Conductor Taylor was in charge of the precious crew, and was assisted by Brakemen Wallace, Loughrey and Mason. It was drawn by engine No. 715, with Engineer Chapman at the throttle. The fireman was Mr. Copeland.Engine No. 812, with Driver Temple and Fireman Gannon in the cab, steamed out of the Forest City fifteen minutes after its predecessor, drawing six coaches, filled with the happy grocers and their families. Conductor Gillespie was in charge, and Brakemen McDonald and Hanson assisted him in looking after their interests. They reached Sarnia at 10:30 a.m.It was an ideal day for picnicking.

The trips on the water were delightful. Many boarded the steamers Conger, Huxwath, and the Quack, on the arrival of the train, the majority taking the Conger down the river, and returning to the island for dinner. Others crossed the bridge and visited the great Republic, or remained on British soil and roamed around Sarnia.The trip to Stag Island caught the majority however.After dinner a baseball match was played between the grocers of the north and south sides of Dundas street, and attracted a great deal of interest. Only five innings were played, and the score was 12 to 3 in favor of the northerners. Walter Hun-terford umpired.There were no races held, and everybody obeyed his or her own sweet will in choosing pleasant pursuits to pass away the time.The dining hall at the island was a little short of waiters, owing to the immense crowd, which caused a delay in the ball match. The attendance was much greater than was expected at the island.The tired but thoroughly pleased crowd returned to the city about 11 p.m. The Seventh Band accompanied the excursion, and furnished an excellent programme of music.The colored people at the Union Baptist Church in Cincinnati, held a large
