can be positively affirmed that the rupture between France and the Vatican is complete. The Holy See's lengthy reply to the French note, though most courteously worded, merely amounts to a polite statement that the Pope does not intend to infringe the stipulations of the concordat and will not withdraw the letters calling the Bishops of Dijon and Laval to Rome.

Pope is informed, but Foreign Minister Delcasse last night sent to M. Dorcles, the French charge d'affaires at the Vatican, two notes; one for the papal secretary of state, announcing the one, instructing the charge d'affaires, and the others of the staff of the embassy, to return to Paris immediately which probably will be this morning, any object.
