R. G. DUN & CO.'S TRADE REPORT LONDON. Ont., April 29.—The demand for goods from the Northwest continues heavy, and manufacturers of clothing, heavy, and manufacturers of clothing, caps, cigars, etc., have prospects of a record season. Other lines, such as crockery and stoves, report good sales. Travellers in the home territory report average orders and spring goods, especially in the millinery line, going off very nicely. Money has not been coming in quite so freely the last week as some would like, and a few renewals are being asked for, but beyond that nothing serious is apprehended. In the building line in this territory there seems to be a feeling of uncertainty; otherwise the prospects are good.

Then Reeve Milien testified that the old man had confided in him that he was not at all satisfied with the way that Thomas and his wife used to run things, and complained of his son's frequent absence from the that he was not at all satisfied with the way that Thomas and his wife used to run things, and complained of his son's frequent absence from the farm, leaving him to do all the work. There was also something mentioned of trouble between Mrs. Thomas Finton and Mrs. St. John that led to the husband and wife separating, Thomas staying at his father's place on wages and Mrs. Thomas living with her sister in the village. Chief Twiss mentioned finding a pair of overalls worn by Thomas Finton on the morning of the murder with bloodstains on them, and the young man being unable to account for the stains. The medical opinion was that there was little doubt that the old that there was little doubt that the old man was murdered. The inquest was adjourned until next Thursday.
