TIGERS AND ARGOS BATTLED TO A TIE

Wonderful Booting by Mallett Prevented Scullers Winning.

Darkness Prevented Further Playing When Full Time Was Up.

HAMILTON, Ont., Nov. 21. - One of the greatest games in the history of the Big Four was pulled off today and resulted in a tie, Tigers 9, Argos 9, for the provincial championship. Starting the second half four points behind, Argos forged into the lead, when smith made a wonderful cross field run and carried the ball from behind mid-field to the five-yard line. It was Everett Smith's work that made it possible for the Argos to tie the score, as O'Connor carried the ball across Tigers' line on the second down, making the score 7 to 6. When O'Connor scored two more points on rouges it looked like Argos' game, but when Tigers got the advantage of the wind in the tourth quarter they came back, and by the aid of Mallett's wonderful booting scored three points on kicks to the dead line, evening the score up.

Excitement Intense Toward End.
In the final moments the excitement was intense, and aithough both teams did their utmost, it was impossible for them to score. Darkness and the end of the game came at the same time, and one of the greatest gridiron con and one of the greatest gridiron con-tests witnessed in Canada for several years came to an end. Thousands of spectators swarmed on the field and lifted the players to their shoulders. To Everett Smith great credit must be given, He played one of the best run-ning games seen for some time, and time and again he avoided the Tiger line, and made runs for big gains.

Mailett Starred for Dig gains.

Mailett Starred for Tigers.

Jack O'Connor and Gonter also played a splendid game. The latter did some brillhant punting, and was able to hold his own against the great Mallett. The latter player was responsible to a great degree for the showing made by the Tigers.

The play-off will have to be settled by the executive. President Phillips, the referee, refused to commit himself as to the probable decision. The lineup:
Argos—Flying wing, Murphy: halves,
O'Connor. Gonter. Smith; quarter.

OTTAWA, Nov. 22.—In the Quebec Rugby Union saw-off at Lansdowne Park yesterday afternoon the Ottawa seconds defeated Westmounts by 24 to 5. They led from start to finish. The match took place in snowdrifts and was a burlesque. Ottawa thus qualified to play the intermediate interprovincial winners but as the Tigers have protested Saturday's victory over the Lamilton Rowing Club, there is another hitch in the draw and Ottawas may be ordered to facilitate the settlement of the difficulty by meeting the intermediate intercollegiate champions next Saturday.
