SCHOOL SUPPLIES

Miss Andrew has been appointed Vendor of School Books, and she has just received a large consignment. Those requiring a supply should call early, and avoid the rush incident to school opening.

JUDGE LANDRY

Frederick Glenister, At the High Mass in St. Dunstan's Church on Sunday morning, Father Carney offered prayers for Judge F. A. Landry, who is seriously ill at his home in Dorchester. Father Carney also paid a glowing tribute to Judge Landry, characterizing him as one of the leading Catholics of New Brunswick and one of whom the Catholic people were proud.

WAS PLEASED

The Graphic Office turns out each week a large quantity of general printing, and it invariably satisfies its customers. This week we printed some stationery for a gentleman who has heretofore used lithographed letter paper, and he complimented us upon the artistic appearance of our work, stating he liked it better than his former litho work. Every merchant in the Bay Chaleur country should patronize the Graphic office as we have the largest and best equipped job printing office north of Moncton, and we do better work than most city offices.

TUG RAISED

Diver Edward Lahey, of St. John arrived home Wednesday morning from Bay Chaleur and is receiving the congratulations of his friends on his success in having raised and saved a large steam tug called the St. Isadore owned by the Prescott Lumber Company on the Benjamin River. Last spring she got caught in an ice flow off Dutch's Cove and it is thought that one of the dead lights was broken in the ice jam causing her to fill and sink about 150 feet off shore.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT

On Thursday morning when Mr. Donald Currie was driving to work, he met with a serious accident. When passing the school a bolt slipped from one of the shafts and the horse started, made off at a gallop, overturned the buggy. Mr. Currie could not extricate himself and was dragged a considerable distance down Andrew street before the horse was captured and the injured man released from his position. He sustained bruises on the arms face and body and required to have two stitches, in his nose which was split open.

DIES IN HOSPITAL

Joseph Thibault of Seven Mile Ridge died at the hospital on Wednesday. He was about 40 years of age and leaves a widow and six children.
