

JAY-EYE-SEE GETS SICK

HE AND PHILLAS MAKE ANOTHER RECORD FAILURE

The winners at the Conroy Island Club's Meeting—General Sporting News at Home and Abroad.

KILGORE, Sept. 13.—The exhibition of trotting by Jay-Eye-See and Phillas did not bring her so large a crowd as had been hoped, the rumor that the state fair authorities would not let it take place on the grounds having deterred many. The day was bright but cold, and a very stiff east wind made it a foregone conclusion that the records would not be broken. Phillas was first brought out and given a warming up heat in 2:34, making the last quarter in 33 seconds. In his first trial for speed he was accompanied by a running horse. He got away in good shape, but the force wind was against him and he only finished in 2:19. The quarters were 0:35, 1:10, 1:45.

He made one more attempt, but only made it in 0:35, 1:09, 1:44, 2:19. In the last heat he broke three times and lost ground each time, though only slightly. Jay-Eye-See was first given a warming up mile in 2:27 and seemed in good condition, though as soon as he was taken to the stable he had a severe chill, and it was thought at first he could not be given a fast mile, but rather than disappoint the crowd he was taken out and started, making the mile in 2:20. The quarters were 34, 1:08, 1:44. The horse was evidently laboring when he came home, and it was announced that no further effort would be made to break the record.

The afternoon was cold and raw, with a strong wind. The plan was to trot two slow heats to warm him up, then one fast heat, but after the first warming heat he had a nervous chill, owing to which he was brought out to complete his fast mile as soon as possible, in order not to disappoint the expectations of the spectators.

J. J. Cass was here in person and ordered subsequent engagements of a matter of prescription, the horse being ill.

Laurens Stagers at Play.
Nearly 1000 persons watched the Young Shamrocks of Montreal and the local Ontario team battle for the intermediate championship pennant at the Jarvis street race-course grounds Saturday afternoon. The affair was more like a slug-fest match than a friendly game of lacrosse. It must be said, however, in favor of the Ontario team, that, with the exception that they played a fair and gentlemanly game throughout. The game cannot be said of the Shamrocks, who seemed bound to win if they had to kill some one to do so. Hardly had the ball been faced for the first game before Jim O'Neil was knocked senseless by a blow from Sullivan's stick. It was nearly half an hour before he was able to get up. It took four strong men to hold him to the ground, and when a bottle was put before him to help him get up, he refused to begin to swell. Murphy was laid off to make the teams even. The teams were now playing ten to ten.

In the second game Linden was tripped and fell, injuring his collar bone. Another man was laid up, and it now began to look as if the game would have to be discontinued for want of players.

The third game was worse than the others. Crown had secured the ball and was turning around making graces at O'Heare's, who afterwards attacked him. Crown then yielded in and the two had it hot and heavy until separated by the field captain of the Ontario's. A more disgraceful game of lacrosse has never been seen in Toronto. The following were the teams and their positions:

Ontario	Shamrocks
Small	Goal
McGovern	Cover-point
Hill	Defence
Rowen	Centre
J. Burns	Home field
Walsh	Home field
Crown	Home field
Linden	Home field
O'Neil	Home field
H. T. Malone	Home field

The ball was faced by Burns and Curran, when Curran passed the ball to Rowan who lost it to Small. Small made a shot for the flag, but Reddy was on hand and sent it flying to the other end of the field. McGovern caught it and passed it to Burns, who made a run up the field, where Sullivan secured the ball and passed it to Nelsky who made a buff and allowed Walsh to send the ball to the Shamrocks' flag, when Linden tipped it between the flags.

In the second game the Shamrocks played all around their opponents, winning the game after the "muffs" play, the ball being put through by Rowan.

In the third game the Ontario secured the ball and passed it to Sullivan who ran out on the field, followed by McGovern. This was the first score. Both players were called off. One of the Ontario secured the ball and passed it to Wilson, who made a splendid run up the field, making a shot for the flag. The Shamrocks secured the ball and passed it down the field, when it was put through the Ontario's flag after seven minutes of actual play. The last game was played with eight men each.

Full Games of the Staten Island Club.
New York, Sept. 13.—At the fourth annual fall games of the Staten Island athletic club L. E. Meyers, champion, won the first trial heat of the 100 yards race in ten seconds, but was not allowed to run in the second trial heat, being ruled out by the judges for starting many at a time.

H. M. Johnson, professional sprinter, tried to beat the record for 100 yards (ten seconds) but only equalled it. Jack McMaster's dog Sammy ran 100 yards in 7.2 seconds, and again in 7.1-5 seconds.

In the 220 yards run Myers was beaten by M. W. Ford, the N. Y. A. C. who had six yards' start. Time, 2:31 seconds.

The Doncaster Cup.
The St. Leger winner, The Lambkin, met a competitor Friday at Doncaster in the race for the cup, at two miles and five furlongs, which Baron de Rothschild's god son, the late Lord, had won. The President had only to carry the regular weight for aged horses, 120 pounds.

The Lambkin put up 7 pounds generally for winning the St. Leger, making his weight 114 pounds, as also did Osean, the winner of the St. Leger last year, which made his weight 120 pounds. Notwith-

CHARLES WATTS AT ALBERT HALL

A SCIENTIFIC MISSIONARY.

Charles Watts at Albert Hall—A Disciple of Freethought and Christianity. Last night Albert Hall was filled by an enthusiastic audience assembled for the purpose of hearing Charles Watts of England deliver a lecture on "Science, Its Principles and Its Aims." This lecture is the first of a series which is to be given in Toronto and Canada generally under the auspices of various secular organizations throughout the dominion which have invited Mr. Watts to make Canada his permanent home. J. Lok Evans, the chairman, said that it was ten years since he stood on the platform as president of the secular (formerly freethought) society and he dwelt on the progress freethought had made since then.

Mr. Watts said that nothing was so detrimental to progress as mental stagnation and he considered that the erroneous views entertained by many in reference to secular philosophy was attributable principally to people putting their thinking out to be done for them. Secularism was misrepresented not so much from intention as from the traditions of misrepresentation handed apart from their alleged defects, and modern science was dreaded, avoided and opposed one of the chief reasons being that the world by those who had never examined it. It was the same with the uprising of the Christian church. Now we are re-estimated first, because old customs are mixed up with our government, and hence difficult to eradicate; second, doctrine were accepted without question; and third, old ideas were bound up with our interests; for to acknowledge oneself a freethinker was to be exposed as a target for the party bigots who sometimes can and do deprive the honest doubter of bread for expressing himself. The speaker denied that secularism was a mere system of negation, it being negative only to error but positive to truth. The Catholic was a negotiator to protestantism, and protestantism was a negotiator to Catholicism. The secularist's cardinal idea was that no man should be given to this life and his duties, as the present existence was a fact beyond dispute and all have missions to perform with dignity to themselves and usefulness to the community.

Mr. Watts said that he was not a freethinker, but a freethinker in the sense that he was not bound up with the old ideas of the church and he was not a freethinker in the sense that he was not bound up with the old ideas of the church and he was not a freethinker in the sense that he was not bound up with the old ideas of the church.
