

SIXTH YEAR AGAINST THE ARISTOCRAT

MR. GLADSTONE'S RECOGNITION OF THE MASSES. A Workman Elevated to the Ministry—Review of the Situation—The Vicerey Ireland.

New York, Feb. 6.—The several changes among the men in office which Mr. Gladstone has just made, have somewhat disturbed the impression of harmony and permanency which was given by his first appointments. They have given rise to the fear that his course in the present crisis may be shifting and unsteady, and not as strong and positive as the situation requires. It is still thought, however, that he is the only man at all able to deal with the Irish question, but even his success is doubted, whereas the success of the man with the same views and purposes, but with a more liberal courage and aggressiveness would be considered an absolutely certain view of the situation in his grasp. Unfortun-ately for Mr. Gladstone, however, his energy of late has been directed towards a more progressive and progressive course, and the possession of the necessary qualities. This is the result of the sentiment which prevails in club circles and about town. Inquiries in ministerial circles reveal that all made across opinion with regard to the liberal coalition.

The politicians who are in the best position to know what they are talking about calculate on only a strong English party for the government, if a strong English party should be formed under the leadership of Mr. Gladstone. The defeat of the government in the House of Commons, before the budget proposals, was one of the most significant events in the history of the party. The financial crisis has been several millions of pounds, and this is most perplexing weight with which to cope on the part of the government. The situation is getting worse, and the temper of the country is very forcibly expressed against the government. It is all well and good, which is about the only thing that the government has recourse to. Whatever the government proposes to remedy the national monetary situation is certain to arouse dangerous opposition in the commons. Even if individual members should regard the necessity of the trade as a necessary evil, they would scarcely vote according to their personal opinions, but in accordance with the general opinion of their constituents to any such purpose.

The Dublin Freeman's Journal says the Earl of Aberdeen, who is an ardent supporter of the government of the country, Lord Aberdeen is a young man of great ability and slight intellectual power. He is an intense friend of the government, and Mr. Gladstone. He will not stand in the way of Messrs. Gladstone and Morley. All the games were won by the Winnipeg club. The St. Paul Indians in full panoply and costume were present. After the parade with Equimans dogs and Arctic sledges the circus of Greeley's exploring expedition will be on exhibition next week. Great preparations are being made for the grand night, when the grand army will finally storm and take the castle. This will be a grand affair, and will be held on the 14th inst. The exercises of the day are continuing to-night with a concert by the Winnipeg club.

Norris, all colored, and Frank Playford, connected of larceny at the present term of court, were publicly whipped on their bare backs in the jail yard to-day, receiving from five to twenty lashes. Edwin J. Hollingsworth was confined one hour in the pillory for forging checks. The temperature was near zero, adding naturally to the legal punishment and greatly aggravating the process of torture. The first man whipped, although but 22 years of age, has been an inmate of the jail twenty times, and has been whipped nearly every time. His brother William is younger, but is treating the same punishment. The court will remain at Windsor for two months.

It calls for $24,000,000 on account of Egypt's share of the expenses of maintaining the army of occupation, and for $23,500,000 on account of the Egyptian army. The Egyptian army is expected to be 100,000 men. The report that the accounts of the Egyptian army are correct, and that the Egyptian army is expected to be 100,000 men. NEW ORLEANS, FEB. 7.—When the British steamer Castle Craig swung out from her berth to-day on her trip to Liverpool, the pilot discovered that she would not obey her rudder, and gave orders to reverse the engine. The vessel was under full way, however, and before the order could be obeyed she ran into the British ship Erie's Gun lying at her wharf, tearing her joints and causing the seams of the deck to open. Sheering off, the Castle Craig struck the British ship Erie's Gun, causing her bowsprit, knocking a hole in her side and crushing the port and starboard sides. The Ecuador parted her lines and the Castle Craig ran between her and the wharf, doing considerable other damage and finally got into clear water. The Castle Craig next crashed into the British ship Atlanta, leaving her a total wreck. Sheering off again she encountered the Ecuador, striking her bowsprit and causing the timbers right and left. The Ecuador got another severe shaking up and the Castle Craig turned her attention to the Norwegian bark Ophir, striking her bowsprit. She then steamed out into the river and was anchored. A steamer got involved in the wreck. Damage $100,000.

DOUBTING AT ALBANY. A Couple of Sermons and Perhaps Faith in the Future.

ALBANY, N.Y., Feb. 6.—Bobbie received his first blow tonight in the occurrence of two sermons, if not fatal accidents, one of which ran into the "Brooklyn Bridge," the largest bolt of lightning in the world, as the latter was being dragged up the hill. Four people on the colliding slight were injured, the steamer internally and the latter was being dragged up the hill. The other accident occurred on Madison avenue, where a street car was struck by a trolley. A slight carrying about twenty persons, running at a terrific rate of speed, struck a street car, causing the street car to stop from one of the residences, on which it was standing. The street car was severely hurt. The old man slipped without serious injury. The bolt struck near the local residence, where it was held for three nights of next week on Madison avenue.

EDUCATE THE MASSES.

Dr. Vincent Preaches in the Protestant Church. Rev. Dr. Chantiqua Vincent of New York addressed the members of Toronto C. P. S. C. in Elm street Methodist church Saturday night. On the platform with him were President L. C. Peck, Rev. Dr. Peck and Dr. J. Geo. Hodgins. In an able discourse he pointed out the aims of the Chautauque movement. To educate the masses, and thereby make life brighter and more useful. He held that there was no reason why the poorest laboring man in the world should not enjoy Homer and Virgil, distinguish books, talk down, listen to the birds and understand their song. DEVASTATION BY WATER.

A LARGE PART OF BELLEVILLE FLOODED. The People Greatly Excited—Suffering Among the Poor—A Non-Successful Campaign—Factories Compelled to Shut Down. BELLEVILLE, Feb. 6.—The flood caused a serious upset this morning. It backed up, overflowing Main street and damaging the business part of the city. From the wharf to the city hall the water is five feet deep on the street. The water in the Ontario printing house is four feet deep, and publication has been completely suspended. At noon a fire broke out in a widow's house in the flooded district. The water was four feet deep, and the people were rescued by the hook and ladder company. People are wild with excitement. It is estimated that the damage done to the city is upwards of $100,000. The water-mark is now fifteen inches higher than it was last night, and many additional buildings have been damaged. The loss, of which immense quantities of the river, has raised on bridge six inches and which has caused a number of buildings to be damaged. Beyond repair. There were many instances of intense suffering throughout the town and before the close of last night. The thermometer indicated 33° below zero. In the city the wood stacks were blown down, and many of the trees were blown down. This caused great suffering, as poor people consume soft wood altogether, and rely upon the woodlands for their supply. Factories have been closed, workmen discharged, who are now dependent upon public charity. Large and valuable buildings on the principal streets have been undermined and the occupants have had to move for fear the buildings would collapse.
