

THE Methodist Magazine.

APRIL, 1889.

VAGABOND VIGNETTES.

BY THE REV. GEO. J. BOND, B.A.

VIII.

ROUND ABOUT JERUSALEM.

JAFFA GATE AND DAVID'S TOWER, JERUSALEM.

HARD by the village of Kolonich is a brook from which, an unlikely tradition affirms, David took the five smooth stones he used such good purpose in his encounter with Goliath. The road to Jerusalem now begins to be a very steep ascent, and at the bridge which spans the stream, an American friend and I took a short cut up the stiff hill, and thus gaining on the carriages, walked on and on, until, at length, on the open table-land we caught sight of some clusters of modern-looking buildings, and soon passing