PAST COAST INDIANS.

Rev. C. M. Tate, missionary.

We have secured a lot near the station at Duncan, and hope to commence building our mission house shortly.

Last Friday we held missionary meeting at the Nanaimo Indian village, and although it was on a week night, and pouring rain at that, yet we had a church full of Indians. With the aid of the magic lantern we showed them what our missionary society has already accomplished among the white people, Indians, Chinese and Japanese, and and through some of the pictures of still pagan Indians, we appealed to them to help their brothers. The collection was a little over $10 and we hope to make a good advance on last year.

We are anxiously looking for a revival all along the east coast.

White Swan Soap is the result of 30 years experience.

SAANICH.

Rev. J. W. Winslow, pastor, writes.

This mission has had its annual Harvest Home services and festivals at North and South Saanich, having enjoyed a rich treat through the kind assistance of the Revs. J. C. Speer, W. H. Barracough, B.A., and Robt. Hughes, all of Victoria.

Mr. Barracough preaching at both appointments most acceptably; Mr. Speer delivering his excellent popular lecture, "Angels Without Wings," at North Saanich on the Friday evening previous, and Mr. Hughes entertaining the South Saanich people with a very pleasing and appropriate address on the Monday evening, some $30 being realized at the two entertainments for church debt and other funds.

SALT SPRING ISLAND.

Rev. D. W. Scott, pastor.

On Sunday, October 9th, we held our first Harvest Home service at Burgoym Bay. The church was beautifully decorated with vegetables, fruits and flowers. Some excellent solos, rendered by Miss M. Patterson and Miss L. Mollet, were listened to by a large and attentive audience.

At Vesuvius, thanks to the enterprise of Miss Mary McHaffey, we now have our place of worship nicely lighted and our congregations are most hopeful.

White Swan Soap may be used by those having tender hands. Try it.

WELLINGTON.

Rev. C. H. M. Sutherland, pastor.

A lecture concert course has been arranged to be held in our church in Wellington during the winter months. The first lecture of the course was delivered on October 17th by the Rev. E. E. Scott, of Vancouver. "Christian Citizenship" was the subject, and for over an hour the audience were as unconscious of the outward flow of armies and of their surroundings as though under the spell of the mesmerist. The subject was dealt with in a masterly manner and made a lasting impression upon the minds of those present. If Mr. Scott is a fair type of present day preachers in the effete East it is certain that an importation occasionally will not do us any harm.

CUMBERLAND.

Rev. Wm. Hicks, pastor.

The church reporter writes:

The membership of our church has decreased on account of the exodus of some of the old pillars of the church.
